Coming Up!

Nashville Country Music Festival

Next week will see a mass migration of key record executives, disk jockeys, performers, writers and others to Nashville for WSM's 10th Annual Country Music Festival to be celebrated in conjunction with the 36th Birthday of the Grand Ole Opry.

From all early indications, this year's Fest, which will take place
Friday, November 3 and Saturday, November 4, will be the biggest ever. For during the past year, the Mecca of Country Music has not only been responsible for almost all of the hit records in the country music field but for a continually increasing portion of some of our biggest pop hits.

The trade has long recognized the Nashville area as a stronghold of good material and good young talent. But in recent years, mainly the last two years, Nashville has received considerable recognition as a key locale in which to record non-country artists. The expression
"the Nashville sound" has become a familiar one in our trade and although it cannot easily be described, it is synonymous in our industry with "a commercial sound."

Many leading pop artists will never record outside of Nashville.
And many key A & R people, in an effort to avoid an artist's falling into a rut with a specific sound, take the artist to Nashville upon occasion for a change-of-pace backdrop and material.

As a result, Nashville has become an increasingly important focal point of popular music to such a degree that each week's new singles almost always include a good number of Nashville recorded disks.
And never does a week go by when Nashville recordings are not well represented on the Top 100. e.g.
"Big Bad John," "Sad Movies," and "Crying" in this week's Top 10.

In past years, many manufacturers would consider the expense involved in attending the Nashville annual fest a waste because they had no country artists. But today, everyone realizes the importance of Nashville and the record company turnout should be tremendous based on conversation around the trade.

From every standpoint, it appears the 10th will be the biggest yet.

Pick of the Week

"LITTLE MISS U.S.A." (2:40) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Well]
"FIND ANOTHER FOOL" (2:30) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Well]
BARRY MANN (ABC-Paramount 10263)

Mann, who broke into the 'top ten' ranks asking the question "Who Put The Bomp (In The Bomp, Bomp, Bomp)?" can repeat that success with his newest for ABC. It's a captivating rock-a-cha-cha about a gal tagged "Little Miss U.S.A." Barry and the Hank Lorber ork-chorus should have her in the national spotlight in no time flat. Artist's in a tearful mood on the pounding "Find Another Fool" companion piece. Top end, tho, carries all the weight.

"IT DO ME SO GOOD" (2:14) [Arc BMI—Dixon, Emerson]
"GIMMIE LOVE" (2:14)
[Sherman, DeVorzon BMI—Sherman, DeVorzon]
ANN MARGRET (RCA Victor 7952)

Victor's exciting new femme performer, Ann-Margret, who scored heavily with her "I Just Don't Understand" session, can do even better this time out. It's a rolling, rock-a-waltz type romantic blueser, labeled "It Do Me So Good," that the canary delivers with loads of feeling. Great instrumental support. "Gimmie Love" makes for a sock-rock change-of-pace on the lower half.

"I'LL NEVER STOP WANTING YOU" (2:32)
[Pogo ASCAP—Udell, Geld]
"THE NIGHT I CRIED" (2:46) [Pogo ASCAP—Udell, Geld]
BRIAN HYLAND (ABC-Paramount 10262)

Hyland should easily come thru with a big follow-up to his long-running ballad stand, "Let Me Belong To You." It's another ultra-lovely romancer, tabbed "I'll Never Stop Loving You," that Brian and the Stan Applebaum ork-chorus treat to a warm, sincere performance. The touching "Night I Cried" dramatically builds along the way. Can ride side-by-side up the hit ladder.

"IT'S TOO SOON TO KNOW" (2:45) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Chessler]
"SEVEN DAY FOOL" (2:50) [BMI-Davis]
ETTA JAMES (Argo 5402)

The lark can easily climb back into hitsville with her tantalizing revival of "It's Too Soon To Know." On it, Etta warmly blends with a stellar beat-ballad instrumental backdrop that the platter spinners'll go wild for. Watch it take off. Lark changes the pace on the flip, as she and the ork-chorus belt out an enticing, chart-contending thumper tabbed "Seven Day Fool." Both lids are from her "Second Time Around" LP.

"DON'T WALK AWAY FROM ME" (2:36) [Roosevelt BMI—Ott, Carter]
"YOU'RE TELLING OUR SECRETS" (2:11)
[Famous ASCAP—Bacharach]
DEE CLARK (VeeJay 409)

Chances are Dee Clark'll do big business with this new VeeJay pairing. Topside, "Don't Walk Away From Me," is a heartfelt rock-a-cha-cha pleader that Dee and the ork-chorus put across with telling effect. Coupler, "You're Telling Our Secrets," is a poignant ballad with a subtle cha cha beat. Two winners here.

"YOU'RE FOLLOWING ME" (2:05)
[E. H. Morris ASCAP—Hilliard, Bacharach]
"ESPECIALLY FOR THE YOUNG" (2:12)
[Roncom ASCAP—Curtis, Weisman]
PERRY COMO (RCA Victor 7962)

Mr. C's return to the wax scene (following a long absence) will, most likely, mark his return to chartdom. "You're Following Me" is the tune that should turn the trick. It's a bright, teen-flavored entry taken for a subdued twist-like ride. Dandy assist from the Mitch Ayres' ork-chorus. The warm, easy-goin' "Especially For The Young" should also appeal to the older set. Side's from the "For The Young At Heart" LP.

"COMES ONCE IN A LIFETIME" (2:27) [Stratford ASCAP—Comden, Green, Styne]
"SWEET DANGER" (2:18) [Empress ASCAP—Wright, Forrest]
JUDY GARLAND (Capitol 4656)

"COMES ONCE IN A LIFETIME" (2:25) [Stratford ASCAP—Comden, Styne, Green]
"TENDER IS THE NIGHT" (2:35) [Miller ASCAP—Webster, Fain]
TONY BENNETT (Columbia 42219)

"Comes Once In A Lifetime," an engagingly swingable tune from the forthcoming musical, "Subways Are For Sleeping," finds the two outstanding performers at their vocal best. Mort Lindsay's crew adds swing lustre to the Garland session while Marty Manning's outfit does likewise on the Bennett stand. Judy's in an easier swing pose on "Sweet Danger," another showtune (from the incoming "Kean") while Tony has a haunting ballad offering in the pic-title tune, "Tender Is the Night"—which has a backdrop hint of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata." Superb all-around programming duos.

HUGO & LUIGI (RCA Victor 7955)

(B+) "BROTHERHOOD OF MAN" (2:20) [Frank ASCAP—Loesser] The H&L mixed chorus and ork do a delightful job on a mock Salvation Army-type hymn showstopper from the smash musical, "How To Succeed . . ." More enterprising deejays and stations should dig the production number format, particularly since the show has a "hit" status.

(B) "LOVE FROM A HEART OF GOLD" (2:06) [Frank ASCAP—Loesser] From the same show, a charming wrap of the old hearts-and-flowers ballads.

SAMMY WARD (Tamla 54049)

(B+) "WHAT MAKES YOU LOVE HIM" (2:36) [Jobete BMI—Gordy] Here Ward develops a low-down moaning John Lee Hooker-like sound. Tune's a slow blues wail and features femme chorale backing for a good commercial outlook.

(B) "DON'T TAKE IT AWAY" (2:41) [Jobete BMI—Gordy] Ork swings into a solid rock-a-cha cha and Ward continues his earthy shouting. Again there's group vocal assistance. Two good r&b sides.

THE REDWOODS (Epic 9473)

(B+) "NEVER TAKE IT AWAY" (2:01) [Trinity BMI—Barry] The teen-wise team displays a rapid-fire rock romantic. Well-done date that could break thru.

(B+) "UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE" (2:16) [Bourne ASCAP—Seneca, Villa] Boys perform the R&B-flavored laff item with apt teen-beat zest. Combo backs-up with an infectious beat.

BIG BILL SCHAEFFER (Four Winds 1008)

(B+) "I HATE, BUT I LIKE POPCORN" (2:01) [Nea-How BMI—Schaeffer] This a zany upbeat rockin' novelty about a fella who has a fervent dislike for popcorn, especially its crunch when eaten. Schaeffer fine humor sense is backed by a solid guitar beat and chorus remarks. Laff stint could make noise.

(C+) "DRAFT CALL" (2:15) [Nea-How BMI—Schaeffer] Quick-beat blueser tells of a chap who not too eager to answer a draft call.

CARL HELM (President 713)

(B+) "EVEN STRANGERS SAY HELLO" (2:25) [Springton ASCAP—Alberts, Meyers] Helm, who has a romantic delivery from the smooth Johnny Mathis-Adam Wade school, does an impressive job on the above-board ballad. Jack Hansen directs an attractive full ork-chorus setting. Can get lots of airtime. Cosnat handles the label nationally.

(B) "TENDERNESS" (2:15) [Malvern & Springton ASCAP—Alberts, Reichner] The performer's affectionate essay is supported by a lush rock-a-cha sound.

TED TAYLOR (Gold Eagle 1812)

(B+) "NO MATTER WHAT YOU DO" (2:38) [Regent BMI—Mure, Wolfe] Taylor convincingly relates the good plaintive, and he's backed by a persuasive string-included ork set-up. Deck can come-up with solid airtime.

(B) "NEVER IN MY LIFE" (2:20) [Wian BMI—Taylor] Here the performer offers an upbeat ballad pose against a busy-sounding combo affair.

VIC DAMONE (Capitol 4645)

(B+) "SOMETHING YOU NEVER HAD BEFORE" (2:10) [Harms ASCAP—Dietz, Schwartz] The songster comes to Capitol with a full-voiced, yet intimate expression on a quality song from the forthcoming musical, "The Gay Life." Jack Marshall's backing is cozy and imaginative. Class cut for many a deejay stanza.

(B+) "TENDER IS THE NIGHT" (2:40) [Miller ASCAP—Fain, Webster] Similar approach to the main-title of a new picture based on the novel by F. Scott Fitzgerald. Can also rate with deejays.

THE RUNABOUTS (Columbia 42200)

(B) "PUSSYFOOT" (2:30) [First BMI—Irwin, Valswig] Good-sounding sly blues-beat attitude from the instrumental crew. Sometimes growling sax heads the showing, with percussive and guitar stints also getting worthwhile teen-market solos.

(B) "PINK SOCKS" (1:59) [First BMI—Nicholas, Dumas, Davis, Irwin, Valswig] Musicians cut loose in a bluesy handclap-featured attack. Teeners will go for the items.

GEORGE PELL (Briar 113)

(B+) "#1 DOLL" (2:00) [Kensan & Cornell—Kingsway ASCAP—] The Todd Records'-handled label gets off to a fine teen-beat start with a catchy good-natured shuffle-beat session. Singer Pell has a pro way with a cheerful rock item, and he's backed by a polished combo-chorus stint. This very likeable issue could make noise.

(B) "THESE THINGS I REMEMBER" (2:17) [Copar-Forrest BMI—Cain, Shields] Cozy rock wistful.

TIMMY SHAW (Jamie 1204)

(B+) "THROW IT OUT OF YOUR MIND" (2:32) [Jamie BMI—Matthews, Hammond, Mores] Lots of blues-styled understanding in Shaw's reading of the poignant blueser. Artist's strong pose is backed by an almost reverent combo-chanting femmes backdrop. Could score in R&B markets.

(B) "A LETTER FROM MY BABY" (2:50) [Jamie BMI—Matthews, Hammond, Mores] Performer's belt stint is backed by a contagious combo arrangement, including an organ.

JERRY VALE (Columbia 42201)

(B+) "ANOTHER TIME, ANOTHER PLACE" (2:38) [Sahara ASCAP—Adler] Songster offers his ballad-wise approach to a haunting romancer from the new musical, "Kwamina." Attractive full ork-chorus accompaniment is handled by Glen Osser. Likely to come-up with plenty of platter spinner activity.

(B) "IF HE LEAVES YOU" (2:41) [Harriet ASCAP—Warren, Kent] The performer is in pro ballad form here, too, though the material isn't as good as above.

SAVINA CATTIVA (Random 605)

(B) "(Take Good Care of My Baby) I'LL BE COMING HOME TO YOU" (2:27) [Aldon BMI—King, Goffin] Lark answers the tremendous Bobby Vee in a manner similar to the original offering. Full ork is included.

(B) "(Without You) WITH YOU" (1:55) [Ridge BMI—Tillotson] Johnny Tillotson's current Cadence click gets a reply. Label is handled by the Discmaker's Group.

Dear Mr. Bleyer,

Your new Cadence Little LP's are just wonderful! They're so easy to tote and play. I have told my girlfriends about them and about it.

Dear Mr. Bleyer,

I received my Johnny Tillotson albums, & I think that they're just great! A "little LP" is really a swingin' idea. They are much more convenient than regular LP's. You might know that Cadence would be the first with such a grand idea.
I was wondering, could you tell me when Johnny's albums will be released to the public? Our deejay said he would use it as the album of the week when it is.
Of course, I believe the guy that was singing on them was great. But maybe I'm a little

Pick of the Week

"SCRATCH MY BACK (I LOVE IT)" (2:04) [Lowery BMI—Stevens]

"WHEN YOU WISH UPON A STAR" (2:49)

[Bourne ASCAP—Washington, Hakline]

RAY STEVENS (Mercury 71888)

Stevens, who had a solid money-maker in his (longest title on record) "Jeremiah Peabody's, etc.," is back with another deck that looks like money-in-the-bank for all concerned. It's an amusing, rock-a-cha-cha novelty tagged "Scratch My Back (I Love It)," that's chock full of hit vocal and musical gimmicks. The terrific beat-ballad revival of "When You Wish Upon A Star" (from "Pinocchio") can make this a back-to-back smasher.

"POP GOES THE WEASEL" (2:27) [Hollis BMI—Trad; Arr. Hackney]

"GONE WITH THE WIND" (2:50)

[Bourne ASCAP—Magidson, Wrubel]

ANTHONY NEWLEY (London 9501)

The English songster, who had a very big item in his home country with "Pop Goes The Weasel," a few months back, can also have a chart triumph with it here. It's an infectious finger-snapper on which Newley notes that the title refers to "the practice of pawning one's hat." Dandy light-swing backdrop that builds in a "Mack The Knife"-like manner. Great programming piece. Chanter hands in a superb revival performance of the beautiful "Gone With The Wind" (not the film tune) on the other end. Can also step way out.

"DREAMIN' ABOUT YOU" (2:00) [Aldon BMI—Goffin, King]

"STRUMMIN' SONG" (1:50) [Wonderland BMI—Sherman, Sherman]

ANNETTE (Vista 388)

The young pic-wax star has another solid contender for hitdom in her new Vista outing. It's an ear-arresting rock-a-cha-cha romancer, dubbed "Dreamin' About You," that Annette (and the Vonnair Sisters) decks out in ultra-commercial, multi-track fashion. The catchy, up beat "Strummin' Song," was featured in the recent Disney "Wonderful World Of Color" TV'er—"The Horsemasters."

"THE LION SLEEPS TONIGHT" (2:35)

[Token BMI—Weiss, Peretti, Creatore]

"TINA" (2:15) [Sanga BMI—Roberts]

THE TOKENS (RCA Victor 7954)

The Tokens can get back into "Tonight I Fell In Love" chart stature with this intriguing opus based on the old African folk tune, "Wimoweh" (a while-back biggie for the Weavers). Side, now tagged "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," is taken for an attention-getting vocal and instrumental (Sammy Lowe) up-beat ride. The quick moving "Tina" makes for an interesting chant-stand on the flip.

"I WON'T CRY ANYMORE" (2:42) [United ASCAP—Wise, Frisch]

"I WAS TOO CAREFUL" (2:16) [One O'Clock BMI—Embers]

THE EMBERS (Empress 104)

The Embers, who revamped "Solitaire (Since You're Gone)" in hit-making style, can make it two-in-a-row with their up-dating of the years-back Tony Bennett winner, "I Won't Cry Anymore." The tune, this time, takes an enticing beat-ballad route that's right up the teeners' alley. More warm, ear-pleasing sounds on the ballad newcomer, "I Was Too Careful."

Check the Country Reviews for Johnny Cash's latest Columbia pop-country chart contenders, "Tall Men" and "Tennessee Flat-Top Box."

Pick of the Week

Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"THERE'S NO OTHER (LIKE MY BABY)" (2:29)

[Bertha BMI—Bates, Spector]

"OH YEAH, MAYBE BABY" (2:35) [Bertha BMI—Hunter, Spector]

THE CRYSTALS (Phillys 100)

Both the Crystals and the L.A.-based Phylles label bow with a deck that should be a topic of teen conversation in the weeks to come. It's a real appealing beat-ballad stint on which the femme group confides that "There's No Other (Like My Baby)." The fetching, teen-directed rock-a-cha-cha, "Oh Yeah, Maybe Baby," also looks good chart-wise.

IVORY JOE HUNTER (Capitol 4648)

(B+) "MAY THE BEST MAN WIN" (2:41) [Trinity BMI—Barry, Hunter, Saxon] Catchy teen-styled tale of a good-sport-at-love from the vet R&B songster-writer. Snappy combo setting features effective now-and-then percussive comments.

(B) "YOU BETTER BELIEVE IT, BABY" (2:34) [Lucky Hit BMI—Hunter] Hunter's familiar easy-beat blues sound here, both in performance and vehicle.

DEBRA LEWIS (Valiant 6015)

(B+) "AM I EXPECTING TOO MUCH" (2:13) [Sherman & DeVorzon BMI—Peace] Attractively done teen-romantic softie from the good-sounding songstress, who is sometimes multi-tracked here. Narrative section is included. Nice full ork teen sound. Can move with airplay.

(B) "YOU STOLE HIM" (1:48) [Sherman & DeVorzon BMI—DeVorzon] Faster rock beat for this ditty.

BOB RILEY (Tibor 4500)

(B) "MEMORIES OF HOME" (2:35) [Tibor BMI—Halmay, Friedenberg] Songster invitingly conveys the sentiments of the nostalgic slow-waltzer. Easy combo setting is teen-inclined. London handles the label.

(B) "WEEKEND VACATION" (2:15) [Tibor BMI—Riley] Lively, somewhat rock-a-billy sounding reading of a catchy tune. Strings are part of the setting.

ROY GAINES (Del-Fi 4169)

(B) "LIZZIE" (3:15) [Maravilla BMI—Gaines] Gaines offers an off-beat sleazy blues essay on the name-song. Effective funky guitar opening in the full ork setting. Something a little different for the kids.

(B) "WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED LOVE" (2:30) [MPH ASCAP—Porter] Against an Afro-Cuban-type rock arrangement, the songster offers the standard strictly for teen consumption.

BUDDY HARMAN

(Warner Bros. 5508)

(B) "THREE COINS IN THE FOUNTAIN" (2:24) [Robbins ASCAP—Styne, Cahn] Strings back Harman's George Shearingish pretty keyboard pose on the sturdy, which is done to a soft Latin beat. Chorus offers soft chants throughout. Makes fine moody-directed programming.

(B) "TOKYO" (1:55) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant, Harman] The Harman combo & chanting femmes offer a generally interesting oriental-flavored outing. Off-beat affair that teen-market appeal. Plus 2 dates are: "Wonderland by Night" (1:23) Roosevelt BMI—Klauss, Gunter, Neuman; "Scaunchy" (1:22) Hi-Lo BMI—Justis, Manker.

BARBARA STEPHENS (Stax 113)

(B+) "THE LIFE I LIVE" (2:21) [East BMI—Porter, Thomas] The Atlantic-handled label, featuring The Mar-Keys, has a feelingful artist in the blues thrush, who convincingly relates the fine plaintive. Attractive soulful combo chore. Might meet with big, mostly R&B-market acceptance.

(B) "I DON'T WORRY" (2:09) [East BMI—Stephens] In this upbeat pose, the performer receives a contagious sound from the musicians.

JERRY BYRD (Monument 449)

(B+) "MEMORIES OF MARIA" (2:14) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison, Melson] Attractive tune is hauntingly performed by the lush Byrd ork, with an electric guitar and strings doing a standout sound job. Percussive touches also add to the deck's original-sounding approach. Might move.

(B) "INVITATION (To Love)" (2:24) [Combine BMI—Byrd] Lush, bouncy portrayal of a catchy, continental-type tune.

MORTY CRAFT (Warwick 670)

(B+) "MORE WHEELS, CHA-CHA-CHA" (2:12) [Dundee BMI—Torres, Stephens] The Craft Singing Strings and chanting chorus offer an attractive Latin version of the recent String-Alongs' hit, also on Warwick. Should figure in hefty deejay spins.

(B) "SWINGING GYPSIES" (2:00) [Selma BMI—Osborne] More ork merry-making.

WYONNA CARR (Reprise 20,033)

(B+) "MY FAITH" [Sands ASCAP—Hansen, Howe] A familiar Chopin Etude has been turned into a sensitive inspirational, and the lark does a beautiful survey of its message. Neal Hefti directs a silken full ork backdrop. Can get the big airtime exposure it needs for sales success.

(B+) "I GOTTA STAND TALL" [Joy ASCAP—Warren, Garson] A contagious gospel-styled affair also a candidate for solid station exposure.

ASTON MARTIN (Del Rio 2301)

(B+) "FALLOUT" (1:45) [Kim Fowley BMI—Walding] This timely-titled instrumental has, ironically, a happy teen-wise rock touch. Beat is Latinish, and strong guitar work is spotlighted. The L.A.-based label could get action with this entry.

(B) "MOONBEAT" (2:00) [Kim Fowley BMI—Walding] A milder teen-market stint in a south-of-the-border vein.

CHARLIE MANNA (Decca 31320)

(B+) "I WANT MY CRAYONS (The Astronaut)" (Part 1) (3:15) [—Howard, Ross] This is Manna's funny bit, from his "Manna Overboard" LP, about an astronaut who refuses to fly unless accompanied by a box of crayons. Fine laff-getter for juke-boxes and stations now programming comedy decks. Also keep in mind Bill Dana's (Jose Jimenez) hit on Kapp, "The Astronaut."

(B+) "I WANT MY CRAYONS (The Astronaut)" (Part 2) [—Howard, Ross] Conclusion of the bit.

NANCY WILSON (Capitol 4647)

(B+) "THE VERDICT" (2:29) [Kahl BMI—Moore, Freed] Fine warbler is strong on the old hit by The Five Keys. Lush ork-chorus backing has a good-sounding teen slant. Can come-up with big airplay.

(B) "GUESS WHO I SAW TODAY" (3:23) [Joy ASCAP—Grand, Boyd] Performer has an after hours sophistication on the almost-evergreen. Cut is from her LP, "Something Wonderful."

The Story of a Millionaire

This is the story of a millionaire. No, not a millionaire in the sense of dollars or securities; but a millionaire in far more important values - friendships and loyalties.

In the past few weeks, since first announcing I was leaving Roulette Records, I have, without exaggeration, received more than 300 calls from people associated in various ways with the record industry. I intended at first to write a letter to each of these people thanking them personally. However, I soon found out this was impossible, what with the job I had on hand in forming and starting my own record company.

I received calls, wires and letters from nearly everyone associated with radio (DJ's, PD's, librarians and station owners) wishing me the best of luck, from suppliers promising their fullest cooperation, and from owners and executives of record companies inquiring if they could help me in any way. Distributors, one stops and rack merchandisers also assured me of their help, as did independent producers and independent promotion men. I could go on and on.

I have a lot of faith in the record business. Despite the pessimists and the alarmists, I believe in the future of the record business. It is a business that has been very good to me over the past six years.

They say one discovers his true friends when things are gloomy and dark. Well, things were never gloomy or dark for me. How could they be when I soon realized how many true friends I had made in the short time I have been in the record business.

Therefore, I am sure you can't blame me for saying, "I Am A Millionaire". The realization of knowing that I have so many friends is worth more to me than any amount of money.

So, to everyone from me - thanks, thanks - a million thanks.

Sincerely,
Joe Kalsky

MAUREEN GRAY (Chancellor 1091)

(B+) "I DON'T WANT TO CRY (In Front of You)" (2:41) [Rambled & Mured—Madara, White] Lark's soulful teen statement on the touching rock-romantic could get lots of coin with enough exposure. She's supported by a first-rate rock-a-string ballad sound. Eye it.

(B) "COME ON AND DANCE" (1:56) [Rambled & Mured—Madara, White] Infectious sock-rock stand.

THE ROMANCERS (Palette 5085)

(B+) "THAT LUCKY OLD SUN" (1:55) [Robbins ASCAP—Smith, Gillespie] There isn't anything of the original Frankie Laine sentiment in this survey of the standby, but the songsters certainly give the kids something to welcome. An infectious, original-sounding date that could happen.

(B) "HARD HEAD" (1:59) [Zodiac BMI—Obrecht, Sheffield, Robinson] Boys are slick on the catchy Latin-rock ditty.

JANE MORGAN (Kapp 431)

(B+) "BLUE HAWAII" (2:39) [Famous ASCAP—Robin, Rainger] The songstress is in top romantic form on the lovely oldie, the title-song of the new Elvis Presley pic. Ork supplies a lush Hawaiian-flavored arrangement. Look for hefty deeJay spins.

(B+) "MOON RIVER" (2:39) [Famous ASCAP—Mercer, Mancini] The outstanding flick tune, from "Breakfast At Tiffany," again finds the performer doing a first-rate ballad reading. Tune is a Top 100 entry via the Henry Mancini (Victor) and Jerry Butler (VeeJay).

LONNIE DONEGAN (Dot 16263)

(B+) "WHOA BACK, BUCK" (2:09) [Folkways BMI—Lomax, Lomax, Ledbetter] Backed by his big Dot hit, "Does Your Chewing Gum . . ." the English start could again get Top 100 with this engaging grow-on-you portrayal of a charming folk tune. Eye closely.

(B) "LIGHT FROM THE LIGHTHOUSE" (2:14) [Hollis BMI—Arr. Donegan] Side with an old-time-religion zest.

LOUIS PRIMA (Dot 16273)

(B+) "MOOD INDIGO" (2:52) [Gotham & Service ASCAP—Ellington, Mills, Bigard] The oldie gets a commercial reading from the Prima combo-chanting chorus. It's an easy-go sound that includes teen-inclined comment, including solo trumpet work from Prima. Could step-out with enough airtime. Also a strong juke-box entry.

(B+) "COME BACK TO SORRENTO" (3:00) [K&L ASCAP—Adapt. & Arr. by Prima, Smith, Belle] Mild, then swinging Italian-English vocal from Prima on the favorite. Same potential as above.

LONNIE DONEGAN (Atlantic 12123)

(B+) "THE WRECK OF THE JOHN B" (2:24) [Ludlow BMI—Sandburg, Hays] The famed folk tune is revived with a smooth, sound-wise approach by the star songster, who just clicked big here with his Dot disk of "Does Your Chewing Gum . . ." Vibes head the calypsoish combo sound, and a chanting chorus is also present in the back-drop. Might score.

(B+) "SORRY BUT I'M GONNA HAVE TO PASS" (2:27) [Tiger BMI—Leiber, Stoller] The onetime success for The Coasters is revived with a fetching medium-beat Latinish sound. Should also be eyed.

JUNE VALLI (Mercury 71882)

(B+) "EVERLASTING" (2:37) [Aldon BMI—Kolber, Mann] Lark's a good bet to get back on the hit trail as she puts her heart into her delivery of this captivating beat-ballad lilter. Splendid ork-choral showcase supplied by Stan Applebaum's outfit. Can bust thru in a big way.

(B+) "SO LONG LOSER" (2:45) [Vanno ASCAP—Mysels, Ness, Del Serino] This end's a rousing foot-stomper with a country twang that also has an eye on the charts.

THE CHANTELS (End 1105)

(B+) "THERE'S OUR SONG AGAIN" (2:35) [Alan K. BMI—Barrett, Smith] Larks, who are making a chart come-back with their Carlton reading of "Look In My Eyes," are heard to strong teen-ballad advantage here on a first-rate teen-romantic. Can develop into a click.

(B) "I'M THE GIRL" (2:30) [Alan K. BMI—Barrett, Goldner] Haunting deliberate-beat stint.

THE GAINORS (Talley-Ho 105)

(B+) "TELL HIM" (2:20) [Ravan BMI—McCoy] This rock-a-cha-cha, string-filled thumper can give the Gainors a solid chart ride. It's loaded with the vocal and instrumental (Doc Bagby & Leon Mitchell-arranged) sounds that the teenagers'll love. Stick with it. Could step way out.

(B) "DARLIN'" (2:18) [Carol BMI—Bell] More inviting sounds here—at a quicker pace. Label's based in Philly.

BILLY STORM (Gregmark 9)

(B+) "WHO'LL KEEP AN EYE ON JANE?" (2:09) [Gregmark, Time BMI—Storm, Perkins] The Era-distributed Gregmark label, currently hot with the Paris Sisters' "I Love" slice, can have another sales-sizzler in Storm's label bow. It's a string-filled, cha cha beat-ballad affair (with a topical theme—he's Army-bound) that sports an effective mid-deck recitation. Powerful entry to keep an eye on.

(B+) "3000 TEARS" (2:19) [Time, Gregmark BMI—Storm] This half finds Storm in a warm, touching beat-ballad pose. Also rates attention.

LOU SHERVINGTON (Kenco 5019)

(B) "I WANT A GIRL" (2:15) [Harry Von Tilzer ASCAP—Von Tilzer, Dillon] New songster heads a cheerful shuffle-beat teen translation of the standby. Femme chants are joyful.

(B) "THE WEDDING OF TWO HEARTS" (2:24) [Kenco Enterprises ASCAP—Harris, Harris, Hecht] The performer has an understanding way with the tender-beat romantic. Setting includes strings.

JOYCE DAVIS & NELSON DUPREE (United Artists 323)

(B) "YOU'RE SOMETHING ELSE" (2:15) [Jayde BMI—Dupree] R&B performers team in an attractive lovey-dovey date. Mostly R&B-market work, though it does a pop chance.

(B) "I WANT TO MARRY YOU" (2:05) [Jan-Jo BMI—Tarleton] Brighter bluesy sound from the duo.

CARL MADURI (Cameo 202)

(C+) "MISS TEENAGE AMERICA" (2:34) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Kohler] Sentimental teen-beat survey with a rock-a-cha beat.

(C+) "WHAT A NIGHT" (2:00) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Kohler, Malecker] Bouncy rock session.

KARI LYNN (Auburn 602)

(B) "LONESOME AND SORRY" (2:05) [Mills ASCAP—Davis, Conrad] The sentimental oldie is given a good plaintive warble by the thrush, who is supported by a nice rock-a-string arrangement. Good teen-market effort from the Hollywood-based diskery.

(B) "YOU'VE GOT TO SEE MAMA EVERY NIGHT" (2:07) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Rose, Conrad] Zestful rock version of the ancient.

PAULA HILL (Encore 666)

(C+) "BUT BEAUTIFUL" (3:10) [Burke-Van Heusen ASCAP—Burke, Van Heusen] Lark offers a whispery reading of the great evergreen, while a full ork supplies a soft-spoken backdrop, including a soulful sax.

(C) "OL' MAN RIVER" (2:05) [T. B. Harms ASCAP—Kern, Hammerstein] After a slow start, lass does a speedy stint on the classic.

KENYON HOPKINS (Kapp 430)

(B+) "BERT'S THEME" [Miller ASCAP—Hopkins] More jazz band polish from the pic.

THE CARTHAYS (Tag 446)

(B) "SO BAD" (2:30) [Conquest-Fairlane ASCAP—Smith] Vocal team, especially its lead, comes-up with an inviting minor-key blend in an R&B vein. Touching quality to this stint. Label is based in N.Y.

(B) "BETTY-JO" (2:15) [Conquest-Fairlane ASCAP—Smith] Fellas have a catchy upbeat delivery here.

ACE CANNON (Hi 2040)

(B+) "TUFF" (2:01) [Jec BMI—Cannon] This deliberate-beat blues stint includes an easy shuffle sound and organ that reminds one of the label's Bill Black Combo.

(B) "SITTIN'" (2:19) [Jec BMI—Cannon] Infectious rockin' combo stint headed by a swingin' Cannon sax. His rhythm backing has a steady gospel-beat feel. Solid teen-dance date.

LENNIE MARTIN ORCH. (Robbee 118)

(B) "LA FEMME" (2:30) [Mills ASCAP—Martin, Angelo] Lots of continental-styled charm to this ork-chanting chorus issue. Kind of cut that should find it easy getting airplay.

(B) "SHOES" (2:07) [Mills ASCAP—Martin, Negri, Guarino] This somewhat milder stint has a touch of "Never On Sunday." Also due for airtime.

JOAN BAEZ (Vanguard 35012)

(B) "BANKS OF THE OHIO" (2:35)—One of the top folk artists, singer-guitarist J. Baez offers an authentic reading of a lovely folk number. The Greenbriar Boys are heard in vocal support. Specialty appeal.

(B) "OLD BLUE" (2:32)—Performer is accompanied only by her guitar here.

ANTONIO PRIETO (RCA Victor International 1)

(B+) "LA NOVIA" (2:44) [Regent BMI—Prieto] This version of the oft-cut number is one of the best-selling versions abroad. Cut in Mexico, the feelingful opus is done with appropriate drama by the songster (singing in Spanish) and the string-included ork.

(B) "EL MILAGRO" (2:32) [—Prieto] There's a similar poignancy here, too.

THE DUMONTS (King 5552)

(B) "BUT ONLY WITH YOU" (2:15) [Pandora BMI—Sandler, Reid, Kosloff] The issue has a pleasant legit quality in the legit group's and combo's light bounce reading of the amiable affectionate. Might make a good juke-box item.

(C+) "HOOPLA" (1:43) [Pandora BMI—Albert, Reid, Sandler] Guys offer an upbeat novelty romantic.

CAMARATA (Vista 387)

(B+) "BABES IN TOYLAND MEDLEY" (Part 2) (2:34) [—Adapt. from Victor Herbert] With a pic version of the classic Victor Herbert operetta set for release soon, the Vista label has issued a delightful full ork medley of endearing songs from the flick score.

(B+) "BABES IN TOYLAND MEDLEY" (Part 2) [—Adapt. from Victor Herbert] More of same sugar-plum music.

THE SQUIRES (MGM 13044)

(B) "MOVIN' OUT" (2:20) [Sturville BMI—The Squires] Teeners have a reliable combo crew here. This portion is an all-out sock-rock date that features hot sax-guitar stints. Should be around at hops.

(B) "OUR THEME" (2:25) [Sturville BMI—The Squires] Keyboard and sax heads this pretty, Floyd Cramerish outing. A versatile combo.

FABIAN (Chancellor 1092)

(B+) "WILD PARTY" (1:56) [Rambled BMI—Pirollo, Finizio, Testa] This could be the vehicle that Fabian can ride back into charts-ville aboard. It's an exciting rocker about a party that has U.S. Bonds doing the mashed potatoes, Chubby & the "Twist" and the Dovells with the "Bristol Stomp." Fabie and the Fabulous Four describe it in coin-catching fashion. Sock support by Pep Lat-taze's crew.

(B) "MADE YOU" (1:54) [Robbins ASCAP—Barry, Peacock] There's a blues feel to the rocker on this half.

KENNY CHANDLER
(United Artists 384)

(B+) "PLEASE MR. MOUNTAIN" (2:07) [Trio BMI—Kane, Green, Salmirs] A sincere, good-sounding teen reading of a touching romantic by the songster. His pretty Stan Applebaum-handled backing is a full ork-chorus affair. Songster made some noise recently with "Drums." This end might get action with enough deejay attention.

(B) "WHAT KIND OF LOVE IS YOURS" (2:31) [Trio BMI—Wiener, Crane, Symms] This medium-beat cut reflects a folk heritage. Interesting sound.

LITTLE CAESAR & THE ROMANS
(Del-Fi 4170)

(B+) "CC RIDER" (2:08) [Rush-Progressive BMI—Willis] "Those Oldies But Goodies" boys bring back the old Chuck Willis with a fine busy-beat blues bounce. Deck, from their "Memories of Those Oldies But Goodies" LP, could mark a chart return for the oldie-goodie.

(B) "TEN COMMANDMENTS OF LOVE" (2:30) [Arc BMI—Paul] Another memory-lane revival for the kids. Also from the LP.

FRANK CHACKSFIELD ORCH.
(London 9502)

(B+) "THEME FROM 'KING OF KINGS'" (2:07) [Robbins ASCAP—Rozsa] The English maestro's ork & chorus catch the drama of the oft-cut pic main-title in an exciting, big-sounding arrangement. A strong entry into the sales race.

(B) "THEME FROM 'FRANCIS OF ASSISI'" (2:42) [Robbins ASCAP—Nascimbene] Lovely orchestral arrangement of another pic theme.

JOE SOUTH (Fairlane 21010)

(B+) "MASQUERADE" (2:30) [Lowery BMI—South] Artist, who cashed in nicely in the "You're The Reason" sweepstakes, can have a real big money-maker in this new one. It's an extremely pretty, ("Spanish Harlem"-flavored) Latin beat weeper that South and the ork-chorus wax in winning style. Eye it closely.

(B+) "I'M SORRY FOR YOU" (2:37) [Lowery BMI—South] There's lotsa chart potential in this heartfelt rock-a-cha-cha pairing. Potent double-header.

EDDIE FISHER (7 Arts 719)

(B+) "TONIGHT" (2:44) [G. Schirmer ASCAP—Sondheim, Bernstein] The strong romantic from "West Side Story" is handsomely handled by the vet songster, who is backed by a lovely Latinish backdrop from the full ork. Date, from an LP Fisher did for the Ramrod label, can cash-in on the just released pic version of the musical, and could soon be a big jock favorite.

(B) "BREEZIN' ALONG WITH THE BREEZE" [Remick ASCAP—Gillespie, Simon, Whiting] The performer's in fine swing form on the choice evergreen.

JOHNNY MITCHELL (Tacit 6137)

(B+) "WHY" (2:43) [Nibs BMI—Mitchell] The new label, handled by the Discmaker's Group, could have a chart start with this strong upbeat Latinish rock-ballad stint by singer Mitchell and his rock-a-string support. Date to eye closely.

(B) "UNANSWERED LETTERS (Reminders of Love)" (3:10) [Nibs BMI—Tokofsky, Esposito] Slower beat for a semi-dramatic essay.

THE SHOWMEN (Minit 632)

(B+) "COUNTRY FOOL" (1:50) [Minit BMI—Biggs] Team's lead wraps-up the strong sock ditty in attention-getting style. Other warblers and combo support with a contagious romp. Boys could score with this original teen attack.

(B+) "IT WILL STAND" (2:20) [Minit BMI—Johnson] There's a fetching upbeat touch to this salute to the durability of rock 'n roll.

THE APPLEJACKS (Cameo 203)

(B+) "MEXICAN HAT TWIST" (2:40) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann, Appell] Artists, who had "Mexican Hat Rock" a short-while back, alternate it this time with the "Twist," the "Bristol Stomp" and the "Strut." Good gimmick that the teen dance enthusiasts oughta dig.

(B) "CHERRY VALLEY" (2:07) [Wooderest BMI—Sheldon, Leon] This end is a fetching new instrumental thumper.

CINDY & SUE (Era 3062)

(B+) "LET'S FALL IN LOVE" (1:54) [Bourne ASCAP—Koehler, Arlen] The standby receives a breezy, very likeable bounce-beat reading from the song duo and teen-gear combo. Many jocks will be taking to the cheerful sound.

(B) "TEMPLE LOVE" (2:04) [Gold Band BMI—Salerno, Deane, Worth] Team chants and organ is featured in this off-beat stint with an intriguing jungle-type touch.

PRINCE CARTER (Go 711)

(B+) "SHAKE ME UP" (2:25) [Garcliff-Marchis BMI—Christy, Cole] Both the songster and his combo-chorus support give the kids a solid bright-beat dance-floor date. This very good-sounding issue could happen. Label is a product of C.G. Recording Corp. of Beverly Hills.

(B) "MR. PAWNSHOP" (2:37) [Garcliff-Marchis] Effective funky blues stylings here.

SUMIKO SAKAMOTO/I. GEORGE
(Decca 31315)

(B) "CORAZON DE MELON" (2:13) [Peer Int'l BMI—Rigual] This import from Japan's Teichiku label features popular Japanese lark Sumiko Sakamoto in a charming Spanish vocal against a Latinish rhythm currently popular in Japan, the Dodon-Pa. Bright, off-beat programming.

(B) "BELLA BELLA VENTURA" (3:21) [George, Furukawa] Here, another Japanese favorite, I. George, does a light upbeat vocal to the same rhythm.

DEL MONTE (1st 102)

(B) "NO FOOLING AROUND (with My Baby)" (2:40) [Osborne BMI—Camp] Monte has an interesting nasal quality in his delivery of the bouncy blueser. Harmonica stint in the setting lends a good-sounding funky touch to the deck. Worth rock programming.

(B) "WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND" (2:03) [Osborne BMI—Camp] Sock blueser features the performer in more natural voicing. Harmonica is again effective.

IVAN WARD (Savoy 1607)

(B+) "THE CLIQUE" [Twin Oaks & Savoy BMI—Ward, Veale] Tuneful ditty comes-in for a catchy Latin-rock go from the Ward musicians, one of them featured on a Theremin-type instrument. Could get important programming time.

(B+) "BABY SITTER" [Twin Oaks & Savoy BMI—Ward, Veale] Infectious upbeat blueser is highlighted by slick guitar and growling sax stints. Two strong combo outings for the teeners.

RENE TOUZET (GNP 167)

(B) "PACHANGA DIFFERENTE" (2:28) [Skyview ASCAP—Touzet] Pianist Touzet's fine Latin ork-vocal crew offers the new Latin dance favorite with a polish that bears the stamp of Latin-step authenticity. Date is from an LP of the same name.

(B) "CLEMENTINE PACHANGA" (2:18) [Skyview ASCAP—Touzet] Familiar folk tune is sung in English by the chorus against the pachanga sound. From the same package.

BOBBY HOLIDAY (Port 70027)

(B) "MY LETTER" (1:50) [Stemick BMI—Paige, Patterson] Colorful R&B-inclined survey from the songster and the band-femme chorus. Brass musicians highlight the instrumental punch. Lots of beat life here.

(B) "COME HOME" (1:45) [Stemick BMI—Paige, Patterson] Holiday warms-up to a softie blues pleader. Same gal warblers are in the setting.

PETER SCOTT PETERS (Lute 6020)

(B) "FALLOUT SHELTER" (2:33) [Kavelin BMI—Peters] A guy tells about his "bomb bungalow" in this Latinish novelty date. Peter does a sly sing-a-narrative stint. Should have programming difficulties.

(C+) "MOON FLIGHT (Astronaut Blues)" (2:16) [Kavelin BMI—Roberts, Peters] Weirdo blueser.

JUDY LEE (Cole 6)

(B) "THE GAME OF LOVE" [Le-Mor ASCAP—Sands, Trace, Manning] Singer is multi-tracked in a pleasing moody performance. Cozy sound from the jazz-inclined combo. Label is based in Chicago.

(C) "MONEY DOESN'T CARE WHO HAS IT" [Le-Mor ASCAP—Manning, Watts, Hoffman] Calypso-type novelty.

LOUIS GRAY (Era 3061)

(B+) "DOOLEY DOOLEY BABY" (2:10) [Bamboo BMI—Gray] Vocalist Gray and the string-included ork deliver an original-sounding blues novelty romancer. This catchy stand could make noise.

(B) "YOU KEEP THE MONEY" (2:10) [Bamboo BMI—Gray] Another good-natured blues-flavored affair.

DON HOSEA (Sun 368)

(B) "SINCE I MET YOU" (2:34) [Katrina BMI—Davidson] Catchy light-beat romantic is done with moments of striking teen sounds, the highlight of which is a now-and-then haunting chorus statement. Hosea does a teen-wise vocal. Date deserves teentime spins.

(B) "UH HUH UNH" (2:25) [Katrina BMI—Cobbs] Good-sounding upbeat blueser.

BEVERLY MAE WILSON
(Impact 11)

(B) "TILL I MET YOU" (2:14) [Anthony ASCAP—Sherwood, Syrios] Lark honestly surveys the tender love-found teen-ballad. Nice soft-spoken combo-chorus setting.

(C+) "LONESOME GIRL" (2:09) [Anthony ASCAP—Sherwood, Syrios] More dramatic romantic stint.

JOE TANNER (Colonial 7017)

(B) "LOVER'S HOLIDAY" (2:13) [Bentley BMI—Tanner] Catchy continental-type instrumental featuring lively guitar work. Chanting chorus adds to the import feel of the side.

(B) "THE BATTLE" (2:21) [Bentley BMI—Arr. Tanner] Handclap percussion sound is included in this bluesy upbeat presentation.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Ferrante & Teicher

Arthur Ferrante and Louis Teicher have been playing piano together since they were six years old when they met as students at the Julliard School of Music. Ferrante, a native of New York City, and Teicher, from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., were both encouraged early to pursue musical careers.

Following schooling and a brief period of concert work they returned to Julliard as faculty members. During the next few years they combined teaching with a limited concert schedule but increasing popularity forced them to give up teaching in 1947 for full time concert work. Gradually they drifted into popular music and for two years was the resident piano team on ABC's "Piano Playhouse." After recording extensively for several companies they went to United Artists and began a string of flick theme hits; first was "The Apartment," next "Exodus" and now "Tonight" from "West Side Story."

Wanda Jackson

Wanda Jackson's entrance into the entertainment field began eight years ago when she was appearing on a local radio show in Oklahoma City. She was thirteen then. Hank Thompson, guesting on the show, was impressed with little Wanda's talents and invited her to rehearse with the band. A recording followed with Billy Gray and his band, "You Can't Have My Love," which became a top hit in the country music field. This activity and Thompson's recommendation interested Capitol into inking the thrush to an exclusive pact. Succeeding hits included "Hot Dog," "Baby Loves Him" and "Donna Wanna."

After a short spell away from the charts, Wanda broke in again last year with "Let's Have A Party," a track from a then year-old album. Reinstated, she scored recently with "Right Or Wrong" and now is climbing with "In The Middle Of A Heartache."

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

The increasing importance of syndicated teen-angled programs was pointed-up last week when Storz Broadcasting revealed plans to buy "Teen-Beat," a new featurette produced by Cleveland's Sound Ideas, for all of its six stations. Norman Wain, Sound Ideas prexy, said that his firm will supply Storz with 25 different taped programs per week. "Teen-Beat" is also heard on WHK-Cleveland and several small-market stations. . . . Recently we reported on Teen Screen Magazine's syndicated "T.S. Hop," emceed by KRLA disk jockey Jimmy O'Neil, which is being launched this week.

In the local teen hop business, WTOL-Toledo unveiled a new Saturday afternoon (3:30-4:30) segment and invites Ohio-bound disk stars for appearances. Garry Miller or Joe Weaver are the men to contact at WTOL for bookings. All they need is a week's notice. . . . CJCH-Halifax, N.S. turned out 6,500 teeners for last week's "Tower of Stars" show at the Forum Auditorium. Deejays Sandy Hoyt and Steve Emery emceed a bill of Johnny Tillotson, the Belmonts and Dion (sic).

Fallout Shelter Fever is still with us. WITH-Baltimore's Buddy McGregor passed the official endurance mark of 240 hours) set previously in Calif., and Mass.) and is still going strong. Only problems so far have been lack of fresh air, which has to be hand-pumped into the shelter, and food; existing exclusively on a diet of Civil Defense food, Buddy has so far lost 12 pounds, but doctors report he's still in excellent physical condition. . . . Recently WLOL-Minneapolis' news director Rod Trongard did a five day-and-night stint in a fallout shelter constructed in the window of a downtown department store.

Contests, contests, contests. . . . It was a close shave for KISN-Portland's Jack Par. The mustachioed disk jockey just lost a bitterly fought air battle with fellow deejay Mike Phillips and now has to remove his facial foliage. Conformist Phillips launched a listener letter campaign to force Par to remove his face fuzz. Par countered with letters from his own listeners. After the more than 10,000 pieces of mail were tallied, Par lost by a hair! . . . Shaggy Story No. 2. Jerry Gordon of KXOA decided to shave his beard and is capitalizing on it with a "Weird Beard" contest, asking listeners how long it will take for the defacing ceremony. The event will be held publicly in a local disk shop with the winning guesser getting ownership rights to the fuzz plus five new LP's. . . . Also in fun is Elliot "Biggie" Nevins' "Make Believe Wedding Game." He's asking his WCKR-Miami listeners to pair celebs to give the newlywed femme an unusual name; e.g. Kim Novak and Alistair Sim (Kim Sim), Merle Oberon and Milton Berle (Merle Berle). On the serious side Elliot notes that his "Biggie Nevins Show" (3-7 PM) is tooling along with chest out and head high in the monster 17-station Miami market, consistently racking up ratings that keep WCKR among the top 3. Biggie is a recently-relocated New Englander. Johnny Rowe has returned to KTLN-Denver after a 21-day stint in the Army. He brought back from the coast an Eddie Cochran Record that Liberty never released.

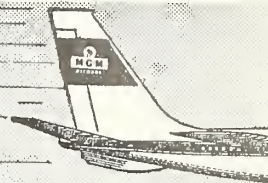

VITAL STATISTICS:

Ken Gaughran, who has been acting program director of WWCO-Waterbury, Conn., since joining the station from WACE-Springfield, Mass.,

(where he also was acting program director) last July, has been promoted to permanent post of program director by station prexy Herbert Bloomberg. Also, Bloomberg announced that Dick Alexander ended a nine-year association with WICC-Bridgeport, Conn., to assume the WWCO all-night shift, and that Ed Harrigan, formerly of WTOR-Torington, Conn., becomes the news and sports director. . . . Dale Kemery has been appointed program director of WATS-Sayre, Pa. He was formerly production manager of WRAW-Reading, Pa. . . . Hal Murray's return to KDWB-Minneapolis (after a three-month absence during which time he was featured on sister-station KFWB-Hollywood) was marked by a huge, boisterous welcoming throng at the airport—egged on by Murray's deejay comrades—which ended in parade through downtown Minneapolis and St. Paul. . . . Dean Alexander, KDWB-Minneapolis news director, adds his talents to the station's morning news bureau for better local news coverage. The Star Stations also has named Steve Shepard to exec veepee and member of the board of directors for KOIL. He had been veepee and general manager for the station for three years. . . . Frank Craig, WINZ-Miami national sales manager, upped to veepee of Rand Broadcasting. . . . Lew Jones of KIOA-Des Moines moves to the noon-4 PM stanza at new sister station KLEO-Wichita, Kan. He replaces Rick Marshall, who moved into the sales staff at KIOA. . . . KAYO-Seattle in a big reshuffle for new format and staff. So far announced, Chris Lane was named director of program operations and Don Hughes as news operations chief. Lane, who formerly held PD posts for Bartell Radio outlets in San Francisco and Milwaukee, comes directly from WLS-Chicago. Hughes comes by way of WOKY-Milwaukee, where he directed the news department for Bartell. No programming plans have been announced yet but it's said that some top name jockeys and news personalities have been obtained.

KISN-Portland, Ore., the Star Station, has upped sales manager Timothy F. Moore to station general manager, and production manager Les Parsons to program director. . . . Jack Gale exits the morning slot at WITH-Baltimore for the program directorship and the morning post at WWIN-Baltimore. . . . Bob Matheson, just released from active duty with the Air Force, goes into an afternoon stanza at WLOS-Asheville, N.C. . . . Dave Carrico is the newly-appointed program director of KOTN-Pine Bluff, Ark. He previously did stints with WWIN and WCMB, Baltimore. . . . Pittsburgh's WEEP has changed its call-letters to WYRE and has added Dick Thompson from WHOT-Campbell, Ohio, and Don Evans from WJET-Erie, Pa. New format revolves around an extended news coverage pattern of newscasts every three minutes, 12 in an hour. . . . KSYD-Wichita Falls, which recently changed to KNIN, is now working with a deejay staff that includes Bobby Dean, Ken James, Bob Taylor, Bill Thomas and PD Mike Hoey. . . . Ray Durkee, assistant program manager of KTLN-Denver, has moved to sister-station KRIZ-Denver to replace Michael D'Arcy, who, after 2½ years as PD, resigned to accept a similar position with an as yet undisclosed station. . . . Jack McDermott is burning the midnight candle for WKAT-Miami. . . . George Palmer, long-time Cincinnati radio and TV personality, has accepted the general managership of WSAI-FM.

ALBUM REVIEWS

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

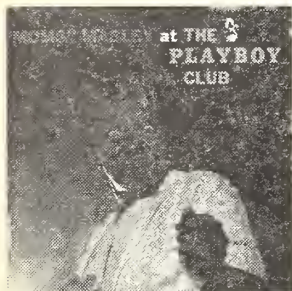

"I REMEMBER TOMMY"—Frank Sinatra—Reprise R-1003

Though the approach is different—but still guided by Sy Oliver—the memory's there in twelve outstanding tracks. Sinatra recalls his early seasoning with the T.D. band in such tunes as "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You," "Imagination," "I'll Be Seeing You" and "The One I Love Belongs To Somebody Else" (the latter two his new single and probably the best tracks in the set). A beautifully assembled package excellently annotated. Another Sinatra special.

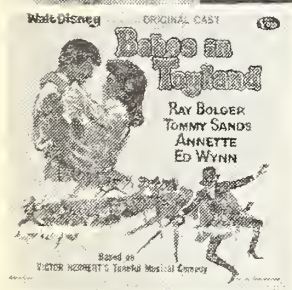

"WEST SIDE STORY"—Original Film Sound-track—Columbia OL 5670

The long-awaited, much touted film remake of the Broadway show opens this month and this original cast album promises to be one of the hottest items of the year. To those familiar with the Broadway show (and there are many, for the cast LP is still a chart item) this version offers no comparison. The voices don't measure up to the original and there has been a loss of immediate excitement in the transfer. Music order has been changed and so have some lyrics—"America" has a completely different context here. However, there's a huge disk market unfamiliar of the B'way cast that'll want this package.

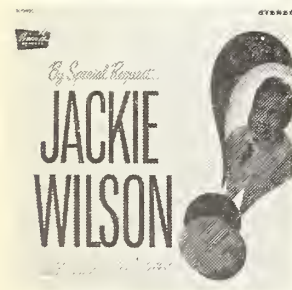

"MOMS MABLEY AT THE PLAYBOY CLUB"—Chess LP 1460

The gravelly-voiced ageless comedienne is featured here in two "live" recorded sessions, mostly at Philly's Uptown Theatre (the scene of her last disk triumph), plus a portion of one side at Chi's posh Playboy Club. Irregardless of location, she's still chock full of down-to-earth stories, anecdotes and songs of universal comic appeal. Set for a chart run.

"BABES IN TOYLAND"—Original Film Sound-track—Vista BV 4022

The soon-to-bow Walt Disney remake of Victor Herbert's immortal operetta sports a cast that includes stalwarts Ray Bolger and Ed Wynn as well as romantic leads Tommy Sands and Annette. Most of the original Herbert melodies have been kept fairly intact, the major work going into lyric and script rewrites. A charming kiddie/adult affair. Deck should reap benefits of flick success.

"BY SPECIAL REQUEST"—Jackie Wilson—Brunswick BL 754101

The ever-rocking songster equips himself with a sheaf of new arrangements for a survey of several chestnuts, plus some new items. The big beat dominates the backdrop of Jackie's sensational teen warbling of "My Heart To Only You," "You Belong To My Heart," "Stormy Weather" and "Try A Little Tenderness" among others. Will be a big outing for Wilson.

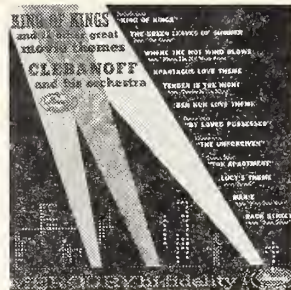

"BLESS YOU"—Tony Orlando—Epic LN 3808

The Epic hitmaker jumps off on his first album in a lineup that includes the four sides from his two hit decks, a few rock items of recent vintage and one self-penned stanza. "Bless You" and "Half-way to Paradise" were the hits. Among the others are "Dream Lover" and "Some Kind-A Wonderful." The lad has an abundance of youthful enthusiasm and drives hard to hit his mark in every track. Could make a chart stand.

"ONLY YOU"—Roy Hamilton—Epic LN 3807

A sincere and devoted artist, Roy Hamilton in his albums maintains a high level of polished artistry. Here he draws his repertoire from songs mostly of the 50's, several associated with Nat King Cole. But all tracks are individual interpretations. Sammy Lowe contributes very fine arrangements for the date. Tunes include "Route 66," "Mona Lisa," "True Love," "My Reverie" and "Too Young."

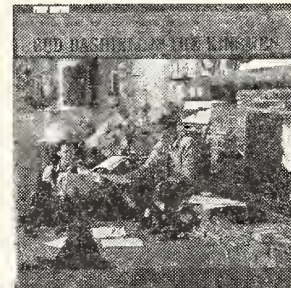

"KING OF KINGS AND 11 OTHER GREAT MOVIE THEMES"—Clebanoff and his Orch.—Mercury MG 20640

The Mercury maestro leads his string-filled flock through readings of a dozen recent and current flick themes. Lead-off track is the just bowed Rosza-penned, stately "King of Kings" prelude. Others include "The Apartment," "The Green Leaves Of Summer," "The Unforgiven" and "Maria" (from "West Side Story"). Highly marketable merchandise.

"AL JOLSON WITH OSCAR LEVANT AT THE PIANO"—Decca DL 9095

A superb engineering achievement has succeeded in giving this disk the appearance of one continuous performance. (Actually culled from 17 different Kraft Music Hall broadcasts.) Oscar Levant is at the piano, Jolson sings some 22 evergreens, both gab, quip and participate in light repartee. For the legions of Jolson fans, here is a choice new setting for nostalgia.

"BUD DASHIEL & THE KINSMEN"—Warner Bros. W 1429

New Kingston-like semi-folk trio formed with one-half of Bud & Travis plus the Kinsmen duo, bows in its initial WB LP date. The repertoire includes folksongs of several countries as well as pop staples in folk-like form, as is the group's current single noisemaker, "I Talk To The Trees" (included here). Other fine selections are "Merci Bon Dieu," "Pom Pa Lom," "Cafe Y Panella" and "Far Side Of The Hill." Invigorating addition to the market.

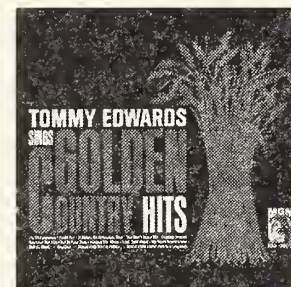

"PETE KING PERCUSSION CONCERT"—The Pete King Chorale & Orch.—Kapp KL-1256

An exciting mixture of a tightly-knit vocal ensemble over a vivid backdrop of percussion has been constructed by maestro King. The group responds with well-drilled precision in "The Trolley Song," "Would You Like To Take A Walk," "The Surrey With The Fringe On Top," "Getting To Know You" and 8 more. Most of the tunes are naturally adaptable to special percussive effects, and every advantage is taken, but in tasteful doses. Good listening here.

"ALOHA FROM TERESA"—Teresa Brewer—Coral CRL 757374

Teresa Brewer applies her exuberant, forceful tones to a parade of Island tunes, some traditional, some new entries. With the Dick Jacobs-directed ork strumming the steel, the thrush drives through "My Little Grass Shack," "Now Is The Hour," "Pineapple Princess" and "Lovely Hula Hands."

"TOMMY EDWARDS SINGS GOLDEN COUNTRY HITS"—MGM E3959

Tommy Edwards seems a knowing interpreter of country songs here. His sweet, well-modulated voice does sincere justice to the vivid imagery found in these songs, such as "It Makes No Difference Now," "Slipping Around," "Half As Much" and "My Heart Would Know." Leroy Holmes' orchestrations are typical of the simple good taste of the Nashville sound. Pleasant vocal package.

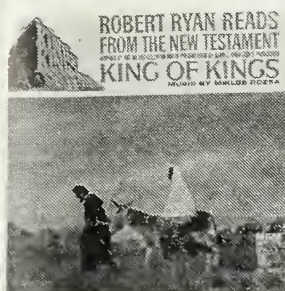

"RON HUSMANN"—Capitol ST 1624

Former "Tenderloin" lead bows his pop singing talents in this first Capitol album. Twist is that overdubbing allows a second voice to come in for frequent comments, asides, duets, two-part harmony. It's a neat trick, but Husmann's warm, friendly, legit voice is fine as it stands. Lots of good swinging here, especially on "Easy Living," "Blue Prelude," "Rambling Rose" and "Oh Lady Be Good."

ALBUM REVIEWS

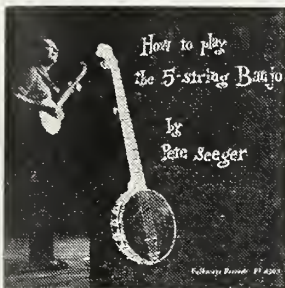

"ROBERT RYAN READS FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT"—MGM E3970

Robert Ryan portrays John the Baptist in "King of Kings." Using this as a stepping stone, accomplished actor Ryan here is recorded in readings from the New Testament, specifically, "The Life Of Jesus," "The Healings And Miracles Of Jesus" and "The Teachings And Doctrines Of Jesus." Ryan's rich voice is easy to listen to. Could be of particular Christmas season interest.

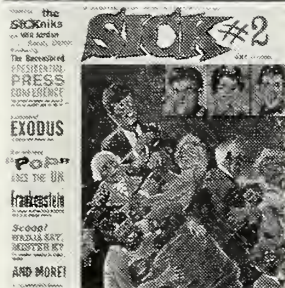

"CURFEW SHALL NOT RING TONIGHT"—Ray Boguslav—Monitor MF 359

Working with Theodore Bikel has benefited folk singer-guitarist Ray Boguslav as evidenced in this first solo album, waxed in campus concert, in which a friendly relationship with the audience is immediately established and maintained throughout through personal warmth and friendly good humor. His song bag has been collected from all over the world and contains both very popular tunes and some not so familiar. It is a well paced program, sung capably and sincerely. Selections include "La Malguena Salorosa," "Pastures Of Plenty" and "Viva La Quinze Brigada."

"HOW TO PLAY THE 5-STRING BANJO"—Pete Seeger—Folkways FI 8303

As interest in folk music flourishes, demand for musical knowledge for individual participation also grows. Pete Seeger, one of the most accomplished folk instrumentalists, offers his own five-string guitar instructions. He uses a homey, friendly approach, and almost casually guides the student through his lessons. It begins with a basic strum and ends with Spanish and South American guitar techniques. An instruction booklet is enclosed.

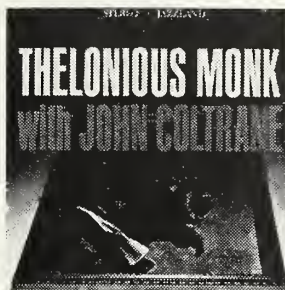

"SICK #2"—The Sickniks—Amy

Will Jordan takes on many guises and voices here in this very "sick" album. The "Presidential Press Conference" deck is included in an extended 8 minute version. The other tracks are somewhat in this vein and include "Pop Goes The U.N.," the story of "Frankenstein" and another international spoof, "Wadja Say, Mr. K?"

"TRAV'LIN' LIGHT"—Anita O'Day—Verve V-2157

That this album is a sort of tribute to the late Billie Holiday is obvious from the selections, but that's where the comparison ends. Though both are among the greats in true jazz singing, stylistically they're miles apart. Here Anita's rough-hewn voice takes on its recently-acquired polish and she directs her boundless vocal energy on carefully chosen paths through "Remember," "God Bless The Child," "I Hear Music," "Some Other Spring" and 8 others. Johnny Mandel and Russ Garcia have orchestrated admirably. She's a rarity among today's crop of singers; jazz buffs should respond.

"THELONIOUS MONK WITH JOHN COLTRANE"—Jazzland JLP 946S

When Monk and Coltrane get together there's fireworks. Add such figures as Coleman Hawkins, Art Blakey, Shadow Wilson and Gigi Gryce and you have a real head-on collision. Needless to say, there are some very unusual moments in this record. Generally, the package will appeal greatly to the most modern of jazz fans. Sessions date from 1957 (when Monk and Coltrane were teamed at the Five Spot) and there will be historical interest here too, especially for the late Shadow Wilson's parts.

"HUB CAP"—Freddie Hubbard—Blue Note 4073

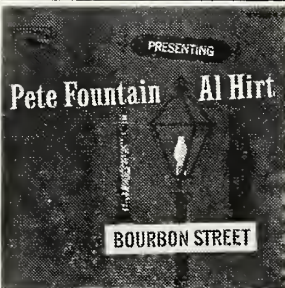

A fiery and dedicated growing trumpet star, Freddie Hubbard here shows to writing advantage here too (he supplied four of the date's six tunes). The group he leads includes Julian Priester, Jimmy Heath and is propelled by Philly Joe Jones. Taking a cue from the title, "Hub Cap" can mean the bigger circles in which Hubbard's playing will be appreciated.

"KWAMINA"—The Billy Taylor Orch.—Mercury MG 20654

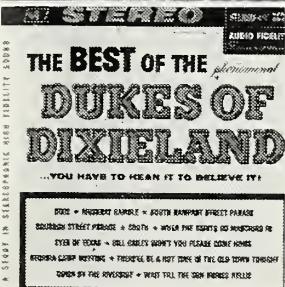

The new Richard Adler ("Pajama Game," "Damn Yankees") musical is set to open on B'way next month. Billy Taylor jumps the original cast gun with this swinging big band version of nine of the tunes from the score. The band comprises some of jazz's biggest names and Taylor leads them efficiently through the melodious score in record time. Effervescent swinging music here.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"BOURBON STREET"—Pete Fountain, Al Hirt—Coral CRL 757389

The two current giants of Dixie are teamed on four of the eight tracks here (Fountain and the group go it alone on the other four) and whip up an exciting Dixie jazz storm together. Traditional items comprise the repertoire; "Farewell Blues," "At The Jazz Band Ball," "Jazz Me Blues"; and they're treated with warmth and courtesy. Big date for Dixie fans. Deck has a chart future.

"THE BEST OF THE DUKES OF DIXIELAND"—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5956

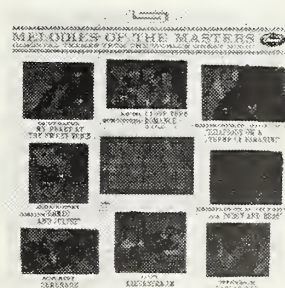

The label has culled a dozen tracks from its catalog of 11 previous Dukes albums and has incorporated them into this one solid survey of past successes. At a $2.98 retail price it should prove a big sales winner. Tracks include "South Rampart Street Parade," "Eyes Of Texas," "Georgia Camp Meeting" and "Saints."

"GERRY MULLIGAN PRESENTS A CONCERT IN JAZZ"—The Concert Jazz Band—Verve V-8415

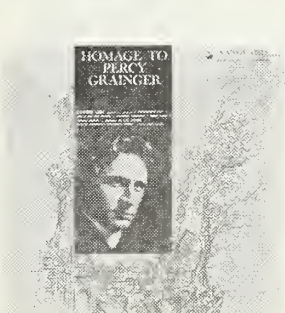

As success for his Concert Jazz Band increases, Mulligan gets more venturesome in his work. Here his group (in its third album) attempts its first try at lengthy concert-type pieces written especially for it and incorporating a much more adventurous modern outlook than in its club repertoire. Success is written all over the date. The group, now more than a year old, responds diligently to the demands writers George Russell, Gary McFarland and Mulligan (with Brookmeyer) make upon it. Mulligan's solos are clean and say a lot. An outstanding jazz package.

CLASSICAL PICKS OF THE WEEK

"MELODIES OF THE MASTERS"—Capitol SA 8563, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69

Here's a perfect gift item for the beginning classical music fan. It's a compendium of seven volumes, all grouped into the series "Melodies Of The Masters," each dealing with a different area of classical music. The selections are either originally short or edited versions of longer pieces. Performances, culled from the vast Capitol catalog, are by such names as the Hollywood Bowl Symphony, Royal Philharmonic, Leopold Stokowski, Leonard Pennario, John Browning, Pittsburgh Symphony and Laurindo Almeida. Should get special Holiday season emphasis.

"HOMAGE TO PERCY GRAINGER"—Eugene List, piano—Vanguard VRS-1072

Here's a classical disk that with proper exposure can venture far into the pop field. It's pianist Eugene List's tribute to Australian-born composer Percy Grainger who died early this year. Most people became familiar with Grainger's captivating and charming melodies in grade school music appreciation courses (don't laugh!) and still remember many of them fondly. List's piano playing surpasses (far surpasses) our music teacher's simplified strokes and he executes the music with utmost taste and respect. Selections include "Country Gardens," "Shepherd's Hey," "Over The Hills And Far Away" and "Mock Morris."

NEW YORK:

London Records singles sales topper hereabouts, Phil Wesson, reports a host of break-out platters in Anthony Newley's (short-while-back English click) "Pop Goes The Weasel," the Harlequins' "Everybody Fish—Part 2" (Collier), the Velvets' "Laugh" (Monument) and Bill Black's "Movin'" (Hi). By the way, that swashbuckling Londoner, Mike Collier, supplies the following glossary for all deejays who cannot comprehend the words to "Pop Goes The Weasel"—which refers to the practice of pawning one's hat or headgear. Tuppenny rice's a cheap brand of rice, treacle's similar to molasses and eagle is a pub or tavern. . . . Over at Al Silver & Hal Percher's Herald-Ember offices the new release spotlights on the Buddies' "Hully Gully Mama" (Comet) and Dick Holler & the Holidays' "Girl Next Door"—"King Kong" (Herald duo). On the sales-rise it's Dickie Godman's "Berlin Top Ten" (Rori)—especially in Chicago—and Roger & the Travelers' "You're Daddy's Little Girl" (Ember). . . . The smiles worn by Steve Schlaks and Howard Farber, who dropped by last week, are due to the nationwide reaction to their production of "Your Ma Said You Cried In Your Sleep Last Night" by Musicor's Keny Dino. . . . Steve & Eydie (Lawrence & Gorme) set for an 11/16-12/6 Copa stint.

Valmor-Empress toppers Jody Cameron and Gene Malis floatin' on that Rice & the Overtones are breaking big in Atlanta, Frisco, Boston, Philly and Cleveland with "Bluebirds Of Happiness." Fred adds that Rae-Cox has just signed Evangelist Rosa Shaw, Gene Franklin and the House Rockers and the Shallows while Enrica has inked Screamin' Jay Hawkins & the Chicken Hawks (wife Pat Newborn and son James), John Lester and the Saratogas.

Up for a CB visit last week (from their Chicago home base) were Del-Fi's Earl Glicken and Smash's Danny Driscoll (who jest happen to look like brothers—for some strange reason). With Earl it's Little Caesar & the Romans' "C. C. Rider" and Roy Gaines' "Lizzie" while Danny's pitch is on Joe Dowell's "Bridge Of Love" and Chad Allen's "Little Lonely." . . . Frankie Dawn, who opens at the Inner Circle this week, out with his So-Lo wax bow, "I Couldn't Care Less."

. . . Mike Serby's Taurus label has inked the Escorts and their debut's tagged "You're For Me." . . . Lester Sims, recently of Bourne Music, now a stock broker with Fahnestock & Co. . . . Eden-Mac Production's new pop A&E man is Tommy Thomas, whose first session, "Bicycle Built For Two" by the D-Notes, is being set for release next week aboard a three-pronged national promo jaunt by the firm's Ronnie Eden, Billy Mac and Steve Camhi. Firm's "I Never Loved"

10/11/16 stint at the Second Fret in Philly. . . . Conway Twitty, Jo-Ann Campbell and Kenny Miller fly to Toronto, Ont., 11/15, for 3 weeks of on location filming of "Johnny Melody." . . . A&R man Orrin Keepnews, who heads the Riverside and Jazzland labels along with partner Bill Graur, winged to Calif. last week to cut George Shearing (via a special Capitol deal) and the Montgomery Bros.

CHICAGO:

NARM Questionnaire Rack Jobbers Will Obtain Facts And Figures

NEW YORK—A questionnaire is being sent to rack-jobber members of the National Association of Record Merchandisers (NARM) in order to get a detailed picture of the rack-jobbing field.

Jules Malamud, NARM's executive secretary stated: "The growth of the record rack merchandiser in the last five years has been a phenomenal one. One of the prime purposes in circulating the questionnaire will be to accumulate accurate, authenticated figures of rack jobber business in phonograph records. We feel that the estimates that have been made up until now will prove appreciably less than the actual figures which we will gather through the questionnaire. It is our aim to have secured by the end of 1961, a complete and accurate statistical picture of record rack merchandising in the United States. Results of this survey will be issued early in 1962 via the trade publications, and will be evaluated by both record merchandisers and manufacturers during the NARM 1961 convention program in April."

The rack jobbers will be asked to give the exact number and type of their phonograph record locations, and the rate of increase of those locations in the past year. It will then be possible to determine how many supermarkets, department stores, drug-stores, service PX's, phonograph equipment outlets, discount outlets, and variety stores are serviced by the rack jobber. The rate at which the number of each of these types of outlets are being added to those already serviced by the rack jobber, will indicate the trends in rack merchandising, and demonstrate the growth of the rack jobber in these various outlets.

Included in the survey is a complete breakdown of the type of record product sold through the racks. The breakdown is requested both in units sold and in percentage of total business for each type of phonograph record product. Figures are requested on percentage of total sales and in units of singles, EP's, kiddie records, and album product sold on the racks. The percentage of mono and stereo will also be taken. A survey of the type of LP unit sold will also be taken, in which a percentage figure is requested for Original Cast and Sound Track LP's, sound LP's, comedy LP's, classical LP's, and pop Albums.

The record merchandisers are including a survey of the problems which they face in their outlets. When the prevalency of these problems is determined, the course which NARM will take in solving them, will be outlined.

Among the most vital portions of the survey, is the one which will request dollar gross figures for rack sales. Thereby, a total industry figure can be estimated, a figure useful to labels, advertising agencies, statistical organizations, public relations firms, etc.; and, of course, the rack jobbers themselves.

NARM has guaranteed that the questionnaire will be a completely confidential one, the figures to be used in a total, composite form only. No individual company figures are meaningful alone, but merely as part of the entire rack jobber picture, the organization feels.

Richard Wolfe To A&R Metronome Disks For U.S. Market

NEW YORK—Europe's Metronome label is moving into the U.S. market, and has just signed writer-arranger-conductor Richard Wolfe to produce disks in New York.

Wolfe will scout for new talent and material and cut disks mainly with the U.S. markets in mind. Metronome will place such masters for release through domestic companies here. At the same time, they will be released by Metronome's own firms in Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Holland and Western Germany and by affiliated labels in most other countries.

Wolfe will also be called upon to produce disks for the U.S. market with certain of Metronome's European artists. To handle such projects, Wolfe will travel to Europe and utilize Metronome's own studios in Stockholm and Copenhagen. Wolfe will himself be featured as an artist, his instrumental of "Never on Sunday" already set for release.

During his A&R stint with Kapp, Wolfe produced such clicks as Brian Hyland's "Itsy Bitsy . . ." and Jerry Keller's "Here Comes Summer." He has penned material for Nat Cole, Johnny Tillotson and others.

The deal was worked out between Wolfe and Claes Dahlgren of Orion Development Corp., Metronome's U.S. firm. Wolfe has opened an office in the same building as Orion, 117 West 48th St., and will audition artists and writers at this address.

Though no longer directly connected with the music scene, he is often consulted on matters pertaining to the record industry throughout the world.

Plans Finalized For WSM's Fete

NASHVILLE—All plans for WSM's 10th Annual Country Music Festival here (Nov. 2-4) were finalized last week, according to Robert Cooper, WSM's general manager and Ott Devine, manager of the Grand Ole Opry. "Two weeks before the festival," Cooper said, "it looks as if this one will really be bigger and better than ever!" Cooper said that advance registration in hotels had been "phenomenal" and that interest was high not only among Opry stars, but artists the country over as well.

Registration for the Festival begins Thursday, Nov. 2, in the lobby of the Andrew Jackson Hotel, headquarters for the event. This year, all those who register will receive a Western-type hat, with the colorful hat band stating the name of the festival, and name tags will also have the Western hat motif.

Festival itself will kick-off with WSM's opening breakfast, with Governor Jimmy Davis of Louisiana making the keynote address. Following Governor Davis' address, WSM will present a country music spectacular featuring Opry stars, to be followed by trade press country music awards.

Friday noon Dot Records will host the luncheon. Speaker at the luncheon will be United States Senator Estes Kefauver. Title of his address is "The Responsibility of the DJ to the Youth of America." Other guests at the Dot luncheon will be Governor Buford Ellington of Tennessee, former Governor of Tennessee, Frank Clement, and Mayor Ben West of Nashville. Friday evening United Records and Pappy Daily will host the dance featuring the music of Merle Lindsay and his Jubilee Band. RCA Victor sponsors the Saturday morning breakfast. Columbia Records will sponsor the Saturday luncheon at which Columbia recording artists entertain and Capitol Records will host the reception-buffet Saturday afternoon. Saturday night, all attending the festival are guests of WSM at the 36th birthday celebration of the Opry.

Thursday and Friday evening of the Festival, Ralph Emery, emcee of WSM's all night show, "Opry Star Spotlight," will broadcast direct from the lobby of the Andrew Jackson Hotel. DJ's artists and industry people are invited to participate in the broadcast.

Seven Arts To Intro $1.25 Adult-Type Single Line

NEW YORK—A $1.25 adult-gear label is in the works at Seven Arts Records, according to prexy Morty Craft. Craft reasons that the label, which will carry adult and R&B-type music, is that such a line might not sell nationally, but in limited areas, and with the high cost of promotion and distribution—Seven Arts has eight distributing outlets of its own under the name of Trans-American Distributing—it is too expensive an operation to sell records for 49¢ or 98¢ in limited quantities.

Hickory Signs Bobby Lord

Turkey To Get Liberty LP's

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records has completed negotiations to have its LP catalog pressed and released in Turkey, making it the first U.S. diskery to have LP's distributed in Turkey. Up until now only 78 rpm disks were available in that country.

Deal, concluded between Liberty's international sales director, Dick Annotico, and Kayihan Caglayan, leading figure in Turkish book and recording activities, calls for Caglayan to press in his own facilities and release LP's under the Liberty logo. Caglayan in turn has contracted with Paul Mayer, owner of Finebilt, for modern equipment to be installed in Caglayan's new pressing plant, currently being readied for Jan. 1962 occupancy. Eighteen Liberty LP's are expected to be released within the first 90 days of the plant's operation.

Kay Kyser Back In Kollege On Capitol LP

HOLLYWOOD—Kay Kyser's famed Kollege of Musical Knowledge will be brought back to disks on Capitol Records, Alan W. Livingston, vice president for creative services, has announced.

A recent recording session in the Capitol Tower was a reunion of the most popular stars in Kyser's long-time radio-television Kollege. Among them were Ginny Sims, Harry Babbitt, Michael Douglas, Trudy Erwin, Ish Kabbie, Jack Martin, Sully Mason, and Lyman Gandee.

The recording session was under the musical direction of George Duning, arranger of many of the Kollege's original hits. Lee Gillette, executive A&R producer, supervised the recording.

Kyser himself is now retired and living near the campus of his alma mater, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C.

His band was one of the best known in the country in the late Forties and early Fifties when his Kollege of Musical Knowledge shows had one of the biggest ratings on radio and TV. The Kollege troupe also appeared in numerous motion pictures.

Release date for the album is not yet set.

Ewart Abner, VeeJay prexy, said that this was the first time that the Chicago-based label had entered into a contractual relationship with a distributor. He announced that Red Schwartz, the firm's national promotion director, would work out of New York, headquartering at Big Town's offices. Jerry Raker, UA's national sales manager, said that Ray Free would be assigned to Big Town as promotion man for New York.

Mercury Eyes Stations With "Battle Of Sounds" Segments

NEW YORK — Mercury Records claims it is getting "solid sales information in advance" by keeping a close watch on stations which run "battle of sounds" contests as a feature part of their programming.

According to Kenny Myers, sales veep, in the past several months, Mercury has been able to aim its promotional guns with greater accuracy and more concentration by getting first-hand listener response on the "battle" shows. Myers said certain stations such as KYA-San Francisco, KQV-Pittsburgh, and KJR-Seattle, to name only a few, are hit makers.

The label feels that audiences in certain territories have the ability to represent the general taste of the country as a whole, "battle" winning tunes or disks from these areas stand a better than average chance of reaching the top ten level of the trade charts.

Peter Pan Kiddie Disks To Feature Pop Hits

NEW YORK—Teenagers can no longer call The Twist their own.

The dance has become the first rock 'n roll-originated dance to gain favor with the general public, and in no section of the country has this been more dramatically displayed than in Manhattan where a small nitery, The Peppermint Lounge, is nightly turning away customers who want to savor its main attraction, either dancing to or watching others dance to a rock 'n roll combo that bleats out The Twist.

Aldon Tops Top Ten Record

NEW YORK—Aldon Music, this city, this week set a new record for the most top ten disks in any one year by a BMI publisher. With this week's Top 100 listing of the Paris Sisters' Gregmark dinking of "I Love How You Love Me" in the #10 spot, the publisher has had nine decks in the top ten this year, thus besting last year's previous high, eight, set by Acuff-Rose.

The other top ten disks for Aldon so far this year are: "Will You Love Me Tomorrow" by The Shirelles; "Where The Boys Are" and "Breakin' In A Brand New Broken Heart," both cut by Connie Francis; "Calendar Girl" and "Little Devil," both by Neil Sedaka; "Just For Old Time's Sake" by The McGuire Sisters; "Take Good Care Of My Baby" by Bobby Vee; and "Who Put The Bomp" by Barry Mann.

Yamaha Label Formed To Issue U.S. Hits In Japan

NEW YORK—Yamaha Music, publishing division of the Nippon Gakki enterprises in Japan, is expanding immediately into the disk field with its own Yamaha label set to issue top U.S. tunes in the Oriental market.

Eddie White, Yamaha veep who handles the American segment of the transoceanic enterprise, announced more than a dozen platter acquisitions from the U.S. hit charts, plus a full catalog deal with Canadian-American Records.

Numbered among the Tokyo-bound waxings are the chick "Ya Ya" by Lee Dorsey on Fury, the new Santo and Johnny "Theme From 'Come September,'" Linda Scott's "Don't Bet Money, Honey," "Quite A Party" by the Fireballs, "Wheels" by the String-alongs, four sides cut by the Belmonts, four Janie Grant sides, The Angels and James Ray numbers.

White also announced new publisher catalog acquisitions for the Yamaha firm, including the Rambled and Debmarr catalogs which represent Frankie Avalon and Fabian properties, White Way Music and Dundee Music, which contains the smash "Wheels." Many others are in the process of negotiation as well, with the expectation that hundreds will be signed in the next few months.

Prestige Names To Sales-Promo Posts

NEW YORK—Prestige Records has announced the following staff appointments: Ron Eyre, sales veep; Benny Robles, field promotion director; Miss Marion Bobel, national promotion director; Alfonso Johnson, dealer promotion director.

Those lucky ones who do manage to make the scene will see a remarkable study in contrasts: delighting in the dance are dress-down youngsters and smartly clad adults, many of whom are solidly entrenched in the social register, and others who read like a who's-who in the entertainment world.

Who's dropped by at the Peppermint Lounge? Either eyeing or trying The Twist in recent weeks have been Greta Garbo, Porfirio and Odile Rubirosa, William Zeckendorf, Jr., Billy Rose, Judy Garland, Tennessee Williams and others.

The Twist is not really a new teen dance, Hank Ballard cut a number with the same title about five years ago, but the ball really started rolling last year via Chubby Checker's smash Parkway dinking of "The Twist," and at 20, Checker is generally regarded as the father of The Twist, and has already made an appearance at The Peppermint Lounge.

So hot is the dance in New York that Al Conn, of Cameo, which handles Parkway, told Cash Box last week that a dress manufacturer offered to buy 50,000 Checker LP's, but was turned-down.

Another solid indication of the step's success is that Arthur Murray has reported that his studios are teaching The Twist to 500 adults in New York alone.

The dance follows on the heels of The Pachanga, the now popular Latin step that was pushed some months ago in somewhat similar fashion at New York's Roseland—and like The Pachanga, which has figured in many LP and singles releases, The Twist should also figure heavily in disk sessions from now on.

Though it's certain that The Twist is not going to mean an adult claim on the whole field of rock 'n roll labels, with proper perspective, can take solid sales advantage of the craze by utilizing their adult-inclined performers in authentic-sounding arrangements of The Twist.

Tripp Sentenced

NEW YORK—Peter Tripp, convicted of accepting $36,050 in payola as deejay-host of WMGM-New York's "Your Hits of the Week" show, was fined $500 and given a six-months suspended sentence in Special Sessions Court last week.

Tripp has been convicted on 35 counts, and, under New York's laws for commercial bribery, a misdemeanor, he could have been sent to jail for up to a year on each count.

However, the bench, consisting of Justice Thomas Rohan and Magistrates Julius Helfand and Edward Chapman, decided on the fine, or sixty days in jail, and six-months suspended sentences on the 35 counts, to be served concurrently.

The Tripp trial and conviction was the result of a payola investigation by New York District Attorney Frank S. Hogan into payola among New York deejays and station personnel.

During the trial, Tripp's lawyer, Benjamin Shedler, maintained that payola was a matter-of-fact practice in broadcasting. Assistant District Attorney Joseph Stone, who prosecuted the case, told the bench that Tripp had "boldly and flagrantly violated the law" and "should suffer the consequences of his acts."

Outside the courtroom Tripp, who is now a deejay KYA-San Francisco, said he was "the scapegoat and the fall guy for the whole country."

Alan Freed, the former WINS deejay, goes on trial this week (16) here on similar charges.

"Milk & Honey" LP

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records last week rush-released the original cast album of "Milk and Honey," the Jerry Herman-Don Appell musical which opened to smash reviews at the Martin Beck Theatre here on Oct. 10. "Milk and Honey," which stars Robert Weede, Mimi Benzell and Molly Picon, was recorded at an all day Sunday session in RCA Victor's Webster Hall studio Oct. 15, under the supervision of co-producers George Avakian and Joe Linhart.

Co-producers Avakian and Linhart utilized recently developed sound-engineering techniques to simulate on a recording, the stage action of the principals in the actual Broadway production of the show, the label said.

A full scale, nationwide advertising and promotional campaign was activated to coincide with the LP's release. Highlighting the program will be full page ads in the New Yorker, the New York Times, Hadassah, and the Playbill, to be followed by large-space ads in Cue, Show, Hi-Fidelity, and Hi-Fi Stereo Review. The "Milk and Honey" LP will also be seen by millions of Life Magazine readers as part of RCA Victor's Christmas ad, a two page full color spread. In addition, arrangements have been made with national Jewish publications to co-promote the album. An international coop promotion with El-Al Airlines, which is prominently featured in the show, is currently being discussed.

Promotional efforts to heighten interest in the show album will include five different mailings to disk jockeys, distributors and dealers numbering in the thousands; a special pressing of the first 100 "Milk and Honey" LP's to go to distributor executives along with the salutary reviews and other covering material; a complete point-of-sale campaign with 500 especially created "motion" window displays, four color window streamers, ad mats and additional displays being planned for key locations around the country.

FCC Voids Miami License; Grants WINS Renewal

WASHINGTON—For the first time in its 27-year history, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) ordered the operator of a TV station—WPST, Channel-10 in Miami—to end its control of the outlet.

The FCC announced last week that Public Service Television would no longer be the licensee of the TV station as of 3am Nov. 20, and awarded the station to L. B. Wilson, Inc., which will probably take-over WPST on the day PST must quit.

The move was the result of a three-year investigation in which PST and two other broadcasting firms seeking the WPST license were accused of "Misconduct" by the FCC in bringing pressure upon the agency itself to get the license, and its earlier decision to drop PST from the outlet—delayed by PST court appeal—was upheld by the Supreme Court. L. B. Wilson, Inc. was awarded the license because it was the only firm desiring the WPST license which an FCC investigator found did not engage in misconduct.

In another move last week, the FCC—by a vote of 4 to 2—granted WINS-New York a three year renewal of its license. As one of the dissenters, FCC Chairman Newton N. Minow, in a written decision, said WINS "willfully or recklessly tolerated the taking of payola by several of its key employees." Minow asked for a public hearing on payola charges at WINS.

Kapp Names Paul Cohen To New Country Dept.; Johnston To Pop A&R

NEW YORK—Kapp Records has announced two A&R appointments, one of which stems from the formation of a new country department. Paul Cohen, vet country music man, associated with Dave Kapp when Kapp was with Decca, has been named to head the new country section. Cohen was Decca for 15 years.

Kapp is planning a "consistent" output of country releases with at least two a month regularly. The first two releases will be Mack's "Fireball Express" and The Easy Riders' "Silver and Gold." Most of the country sessions will come out of Nashville, with Kapp planning a closer relationship with southern distributors. New artists in the country field have been inked, and their names will be announced shortly.

The prefix for Kapp country releases will be KCW.

In another appointment, Bobby Johnston, formerly with Clyde Otis, will do pop A&R work for the label to strengthen Kapp's teen-market releases. Johnston has been doing free-lance work out of Texas.

Phil Skaff, Kapp sales head, said the label would continue to use indie producers like Lieber-Stoller, Buddy Kaye and Phil Springer and others.

MGM & 215 NBC-TV Outlets Promote "Bonanza" LP

NEW YORK—MGM Records is tieing-in with 215 NBC-TV affiliates in a co-op promotional drive for David Rose's LP, "Bonanza," which features Rose's music for the NBC show.

The promotion, arranged by Sol Handwerker, MGM/Verve director of exploitation, and Al Rylander, director of NBC promotional services, calls for the LP to be flashed on the TV screen after each "Bonanza" episode. Members of the show's cast are being photographed with the Rose album for publicity in trade and TV fan magazines and local newspapers. NBC-TV promotion representatives are working with local MGM distributors and promotion men for dealer window displays and in-store promotions. Affiliated NBC radio stations located in the same cities will cross-play both the show and the album.

Little Eddie, Big Promise

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records star Johnny Burnette extends a hand of welcome to "Little Eddie" Carrozza, 17-year-old singer-songwriter from Coatesville, Pa., who just joined the label.

The story behind Eddie's coming to the label is considered unique by Liberty execs. At first he had cornered Liberty promo men Bob Skaff and Bud Dain (who were in his town on a promo trek) and played a demo. They promised him a meeting with the label's A&R man, Snuff Garrett. Then Eddie started a home-town fund raising campaign to get enough money for a one-way ticket to Hollywood. Eddie's perseverance paid off in big dividends. Liberty agreed to underwrite the entire cost of Eddie's first session.

Billy Daniels Inks Rep Pact With Lutz & Loeb

BEVERLY HILLS—Billy Daniels, the vet songster, has signed his first personal management pact in 11 years with Lutz & Loeb, this city. Move is part of the firm's plans to add disk, stage and TV talent to its roster in addition to packaging theatrical and TV enterprises. Firm is currently setting up a European tour for the performer, his first, and is creating a new supper club act for him. Daniels, now performing in New York, will go to Hollywood next month to confer with Lutz & Loeb on disk offers, and begin rehearsals on his new act.

Lord Invader, Calypso Artist-Cleffer, Dies

NEW YORK—Lord Invader, the famed calypso artist-writer, died here last week (15) at Harlem Hospital at the age of 47. He had been ill for about a month.

Lord Invader was the author of two calypso-type songs that rank among the top successes of the idiom, "Rum and Coca-Cola," a million-selling disk for the Andrew Sisters in 1944, and "Mary Ann," the years-back hit by Terry Gilkyson and The Easy-Riders.

He recorded for Decca in the late 30's, and, most recently, was represented on the Folkways label. His wife survives.

Continental Label To Bow "Deluxe" LP Series

NEW YORK—Continental Records, this city, will bow a new line of deluxe albums, to retail at $6.98 stereo, $5.98 mono, on Nov. 15, in a move the firm declares is "designed to reverse the price cutting and discount selling now plaguing the record industry."

According to topper Donald H. Gabor, who in 1947 formed the Remington label, one of the first low-priced LP line at $1.98, the "competition has so cheapened prices and product that even first-rate performance is being threatened."

In order to "guarantee" against discounting, Continental will be marketed via franchised distributors, who, the label says, will be supported by a $450,000 advertising and promotion campaign and will receive a "firm profit margin." Also, pricing will be protected by numbering each record and voiding the exclusive franchise of any distributor who "supplies the discount dealer."

To date, there are 37 albums in the new series, encompassing international, jazz collectors and foreign material, all produced in Gabor's own plant in Webster, Mass.

Art director Bert Steinhauser has designed a new trademark and four-color album covers. The liner notes are contained on an inserted page of fine stock in large legible type.

In addition to the Remington venture, was associated with the foreign department of RCA Victor and created the music appreciation series called "Music Plus."

Beltone Bows Subsid Lescay Label

NEW YORK—Beltone Records has just bowed a subsid, Lescay Records. The new label will be handled by indie distributors throughout the U.S., though Beltone itself is handled nationally by King Records. First two Lescay singles are "Long Tall Girl" by The Carnations and "Laughing At Me" by Barbara J. & The Silver Slippers, both arranged and conducted by Joe Rene. Otis Pollard, national promotion head for Beltone and Lescay, is going on a cross-country deejay-distrib tour for the new diskery, and to promote two new Beltone singles by Bobby Lewis and The Jive Five.

Seeco's Hillman Heads Charity's Promo Dept.

NEW YORK—Mort Hillman, general manager of Seeco Records, has been appointed to the honorary position of publicity director of the Fountain House Theatre Wing, a division of Fountain House, which is a non-profit social rehabilitation center for ex-mental patients. The Wing is currently in rehearsal for performance of "The Winslow Boy," its third production. The Fountain House Theatre Wing is composed of professional actors and actresses, who volunteer their services for Fountain House benefit performances. "The Winslow Boy" will be presented on three successive nights, November 9, 10 and 11, at Judson Hall, 57th Street & 7th Avenue. Hillman said that tickets are available through his office or at Judson Hall on performance nights.

Capitol Sets Plan On "Sail Away" LP

NEW YORK—Capitol Records is offering dealers on a buy-10-get-one-free deal on its original-cast recording of Noel Coward's new musical, "Sail Away," whose national distribution was completed by the label last week. Verve Sees 400,000 LP's Sold In Fall Plan

NEW YORK—The Verve label's current fall LP program is expected to account for the sale of 400,000 LP's when it expires next week (31), Andy Miele, MGM/Verve's director of marketing, estimated last week. According to Miele, the plan, which began Oct. 1, has already resulted in 250,000 LP's sold. The program offers dealers one free album for every six purchased on the entire Verve catalog and special dating privileges (see Album Plans section).

Colpix & Wesley Rose In Indie Producing Deal

At Bourne Music, Joe Zerga, executive assistant to Mrs. Bourne, left last week for a business trip to Hollywood. Zerga was recently associated with EMI in London and headed the music publishing firms of Capitol Records.

CASH BOX TOP 100's PUBLISHERS

(Top 100 titles listed alphabetically see card for artist and label credit)

Cash Box recently paid a visit to Fermata's office in Sao Paulo City. Henrique Lebendiger, president of that great publishing and record producing organization, just returned from the trip to Argentina, where he went to supervise his organization's business. We had indeed a great surprise. Fermata's offices are completely changed. The sheet music sales department was moved to another building, a few steps from the Avenida Ipiranga, at Santa Efigenia Street. The number is 190, first floor. Lebendiger at the same time introduced complete electrical machinery—the first in Brazil—for accountancy and correspondence. With these improvements, Lebendiger expects new and more profitable business.

The problem of record releases in Brazil is getting worse. Labels are releasing too many records at a time. For instance, RCA Victor's issue for October is no less than ten LP's. With a new price increase, it's expected that sales will decrease. There are almost two dozen of record companies here, and if they release records in that scale, soon the retail stores will be filled with records they won't be able to sell.

Among the records released by RCA Victor, there's one with Brazilian singer Cauby Peixoto, who waxed a few years ago some records with Paul Weston's Orchestra, in the United States. Cauby has great popularity here, especially with the teenage public. The album's name is "Perdao Para Dois"—name of a very popular song which was a great hit a few months ago by himself and with another record, issued by Chantecler, with Leila Silva.

Odeon (EMI), has just issued ten albums. In this collection only one is local: "Historias De Bichos" (Animal Storys) a gay record with José Vasconcelos speaking to the Brazilian little boys and girls.

The nine others including: "All The Way" (Capitol) with Frank Sinatra; "Amor, Romance . . . As Cordas Maravilhosas" (Love, Romance . . . The Wonderful Strings) with Franck Pourcell and his famous orchestra; "Joias Da Canção Napolitana" (Italian Popular Songs) with Beniamino Gigli; "Overtures And Preludes Of Giuseppe Verdi," from some famous Verdi's Operas like "Aida," "La Forza Del Destino," "Nabucco," "La Traviata," etc. Philharmonic Orchestra is conducted by Alceu Gagliera; "Tangos De Todos Os Tempos" (Tangos From Everytime), with Tany Scala and his orchestra; "Romance"—with Lucho Gatica, the famous Latin singer; "Swinging On Broadway"—with Jonah Jones Quartet, a reissue; and "Songs From Young Lovers" with Frank Sinatra and Nelson Riddle Orchestra, another old album request again by the Brazilian young people.

BELGIUM

Discovogue L.C. very happy with the tremendous sales of "Romeo" by Petula Clark. At this moment, about 65,000 records are already sold in Belgium and the company has good hopes "Romeo" will reach the 100,000 mark. Discovogue is expecting a lot from its new exclusive recording artist Jackie Seven, who is 17 years old and who's first EP is well received by Belgian rock 'n' roll fans. Titles on this EP are: "Viens Danser Le Twist," "Sa Grande Passion," "Blue Jeans Rock" and "Le Rythme Du Rock."

Young Flemish singer Remy Ray just made his first record for the Will-label, which is also the first Flemish production of this record company. Titles: "Ik Wil Vanavond Met Je Dansen" (words by Johnny Hoes) and "Telefoon Fox" (words by Eric Franssen). Another platter of which the Will-label is expecting good sales: "El Toro Cha Cha" and "Loca Rumba" by The Dore Sisters.

Among the new releases by L.C. Gramophone last week is a terrific LP by Cliff Richard: "Twenty One Today" (Columbia), containing sixteen new songs. In this album Cliff pays tribute to the four young men, The Shadows, who have been all-important to him. And it is appropriate that The Shadows should be heavily featured on this birthday record, just as they have been through his career. Also released by L.C. Gramophone: "Last Night" by The Kar-Meys (Pathé) and "Cappuccina" by Nat 'King' Cole (Capitol). Gramophone's bestsellers of this moment are "You Don't Know" (Helen Shapiro) on Columbia, "Kon-Tiki" (The Shadows) on Columbia and "Zarina" (Rex Gildo) on Electrola.

Best-sold-single records of S.A. Fonior in the month of September were: 1. "Pepito" (Los Machucambos); 2. "Brigitte Bardot" (Jorge Veiga); 3. "Wheels" (The String-A-Longs); 4. "La Bamba" (Los Machucambos); 5. "Il Faut Savor" (Charles Aznavour). Best-sold EP was "Il Faut Savor" by Charles Aznavour; best-sold LP: "Bravo Bobbejaan Schoepen" by Bobbejaan Schoepen.

Belinda Music-boss Edgard Plumart reporting the publishing company is making a very great effort to launch American and French versions of "Let's Twist Again"/"Viens Danser Le Twist." Moreover, Eddie Hodges' record "I'm Gonna Knock On Your Door" has a good start in Belgium in the jukeboxes. On the other side, "Runaway" (Del Shannon) is still pointed out as a smash hit in the Walloon as well as the Flemish part of Belgium.

Italian star Betty Curtis, who won this year the "Festival Of San Remo" as well as the "Festival Of Naples," appeared in Flemish TV-program "Zet De Klok Maar Stil" ("Stop The Clock") with big success.

The "Grote Belgische Variétéprijs," a yearly national contest for new talent, sponsored on Radio Luxemburg by a wellknown German automobile concern, started its new season. In the last four years many new recording stars were discovered, but most of the time talent is picked out before the finale. No real winner ever reached a high standard. Last year following talents were signed long before the finale took place: Jenny Rimini (on Philips records), The Tramps (also Philips) and Chris Ellis, now vocalist with the Francis Bay Orchestra.

With Latin music high in demand ("Brigitte Bardot" and "La Novia" now top-sellers in Belgium), Eddy Ranada with "Los Ranadas" got their first disk released in Holland on Tivoli, "Soulouwé." With 4,000 records sold within two weeks, it is expected that this record will reach the international market successfully. Eddy Ranada lives in Brussels, but is Surinam-born. He is a real Indian.

Socodisc/Brussels has been appointed Belgian distrib for the Reprise-label.

Fast Records signed following artists to an exclusive recording-pact: The Bonanzas, The Peanuts, Rachel Robbins and Joske Harris. Producer L. J. Van Rymenant will record all of these artists for immediate release. President Jean Meeusen expected to leave for a short trip to New York in November, in order to contact his licensees, to sell his international material and to record rhythm and blues-artists for Europe.

Australian W&G-record "Jezebel," in Belgium under the Heliodor-label, expected to be a hit.

HOLLAND

Imperial's successful Dutch teenager singer Harry Bliek, who recently blew up a storm with his hit version of "Hello Mary Lou," following up the former "Mary Lou"-story, and backing same with his Dutch treat of "You Don't Know," entitled "Doe Niet Zo."

Bovema's Columbia label will soon release two current American hits, high on the list this week: "Dreamlovers" by Bob Martin, backed by "When We Get Married" as well as the number 5 topper "Bristol Stomp" by The Dovells.

In the new repertoire of Bovema's MGM-label, led by Frank Visser, Bill Giant's "When I Grow Too Old To Dream" and "Better Let Her Go" will have a fair chance of being solid sellers, according to Visser, who also expressed his high hopes on Joni James youngest recording of "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place."

Cees Hundepool, label manager of Bovema's Capitol label in Holland, has released a new mono- and stereo-repertoire for the label in Holland, containing The Four Freshmen-LP "The Freshmen Year," June Christy's "Off Beat" and Carmon Dragon's "A World Of Music."

A new series of EP's, "Poll Winners' Jazz," has just been released on Fontana. They feature top jazz musicians like Art Blakey, Lee Morgan, Benny Golson, Miles Davis, John Coltrane, Paul Desmond, Dave Brubeck and Bob Brookmeyer (L.C. Phonogram).

Dutch teenage star Ria Valk has a new hit on Fontana single "De Sheriff Van Arkansas Is Een Lady," Dutch sung version of Caterina Valente's big hit in Germany "Der Sheriff Von Arkansas Ist 'Ne Lady."

De Spelbrekers have a new single record out, with "Een Riks Contant En Een Riks Per Week" ("A Dollar Down And A Dollar A Week") and "Als Ik Opsta" ("Le Matin Je M'Eveille En Chantant"), originally a French chanson by Guy Béart (Decca). Same label has British teenage star Billy Fury—still very successful with "Halfway To Paradise"—with a brand new version of oldie "Jealousy." Caterina Valente is doing well in the Italian charts with "Non Dimenticar," out here on the Decca label (L.C. Phonogram).

Pick of L.C. Phonogram releases on the London label: "My Blue Heaven" (Duane Eddy), "Mexico" (Bob Moore) and "Riders In The Sky" (Lawrence Welk).

The Dutch Swing College Band came back from their very successful South American tour. The boys did several radio- and TV-programs over there. DSC records are released throughout the world on Philips.

ENGLAND

The directors of Electrical & Musical Industries Ltd. (EMI) have announced trading results for the year ended June 30, 1961. Total Group Sales were £82,440,000 an increase of £13,740,000 on the year 1959/60. The Group Trading Profit, before depreciation of £7,836,000, was also £905,000 up on the previous year. The group profit margin however was lower, mainly due to the restrictive policies of the Governments of the U.K. and Australia which adversely affected the domestic appliance and radio and TV businesses. The turnover of the record business on the other hand has gone up all over the world. To sum it up it has been a poor year for electrical products but a good one for records.

Social event of the week was the party hosted by EMI to celebrate the 21st birthday of Britain's top male star Cliff Richard. A dual presentation was made by EMI Chairman Sir Joseph Lockwood of a camera and a silver LP to commemorate the sale of a quarter million LPs. Taking into account his LP's, EP's, and singles pressed in the U.K. only, it can be said that the total sales during his three years with EMI represent over 6,000,000 singles. Tributes were also paid to Cliff's backing group, The Shadows, by R. Dawes, of EMI International. Recording stars in their own right, they have three silver disks to their credit and a fourth in the offing for their current hit "Kon Tiki." Each member was presented with a pair of "silver disk" cuff links. Later in the week Cliff and The Shadows left for an extensive tour of Australia, New Zealand and Malaya.

Deutsche Grammophon (GB) Ltd. hosted a party last week for ace Hungarian pianist Andor Foldes—in London for concerts at the Royal Festival Hall. An exclusive D.G.G. artist, Foldes is recording all 32 Beethoven Sonatas. Of the 12 already completed an LP comprising the 101 and 109 will be released here in December.

Another notable release in the classical field comes from EMI with 2 LP's on the Columbia label of the complete Brandenburg Concertos recorded by Otto Klemperer and the Philharmonia Orchestra.

Celebrated French conductor Pierre Monteux, newly appointed director of the London Symphony Orchestra, this month makes his British TV debut in the first of the BBC's new "International Concert Hall" programmes. The concert also features Czech pianist Rudolf Firkušný.

Chita Rivera, currently starring in the London Production of "Bye Bye Birdie," cutting tracks for her first solo LP, "Chita" to be issued by Philips. Her co-star from the "Birdie" show, pop singer Marty Wilde has found time to pen "Tomorrow's Clown," which he waxed for Philips A & R manager Johnny Franz, and is published by Leeds. Backing is "The Hellions Song" from the film of the same name in which Marty is featured published by Chappells. Comedian Tony Fayne just completed his first LP for Philips entitled "British Institutions"—libel suits expected from The Royal Navy, The Foreign Office and British Railways!

Fontana A & R manager Jack Bayerstock just back from France and Holland and discussions concerning British releases in those territories. The label is currently riding high with Cleo Laine's "You'll Answer To Me" at No. 6 with Tony Orlando's "Bless You" in hot pursuit.

With three offers in hand, Lonnie Donegan and manager Cyril Berlin were recently in New York to negotiate a new stateside label. Following his success of "Does Your Cheating Gum" Felstead are releasing his million selling "Rock Island Line." Donegan is also likely to sign a contract for a coast to coast Canadian tour in May 1962.

Harry Walters is leaving EMI to take up an appointment as European representative for Cameo Records. His duties will include liaison with licensees and the acquisition of material and artistes for American release. Walters told Cash Box that he may also make LP recordings here. He has been with EMI for five years, the last 18 months were spent with the international division. The latest Cameo release over here is "Farmer John" by Carl and The Commandos who make their British debut on the Columbia label. The backing "Cleanin' Up" is their own composition.

The McGuire Sisters just arrived in town for their British cabaret debut at Bernard Delfont's "Talk Of The Town." They will also top the bill on Val Parnall's "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" on October 22. To coincide with their visit, Decca released a single "I Do, I Do, I Do" and an LP "Just For Old Time's Sake"—both on the Coral label.

Deejay Pete Murray, currently in New York taping interviews to be screened here by I.T.V.

Lou Bolton, dynamic manager for Ivory Joe Hunter, called at the Cash Box office to extoll the praises of EMI's promotional activities on the star's behalf. His current Capitol release "I'm Hooked" is to be followed on October 27 with "May The Best Man Win."

Sammy Davis Jr.'s fabulously successful season at The Prince of Wales Theatre just came to a triumphant close. When the curtain finally fell on the last performance, it was well past midnight. During his show, Sammy was joined on stage by many British stars including Anthony Newley, Alma Cogan, Joyce and Lionel Blair and The Dagenham Girl Pipers. The P.O.W. Theatre now houses the London production of "Do Re Me," starring Max Bygraves, who collected enough good notices following the opening night to keep the show running for some considerable time.

Petula Clark returned to Paris after waxing her latest single for Pye "My Friend The Sea" backed with a Lionel Bart number "With All My Love" for October 24 release.

Don Black, manager for Matt Monro, just back from New York where the star continues to pack them in at the Round Table. Don reports offers for further cabaret engagements plus films and a Broadway show for 1962.

Geoffrey Everitt, William Hood and Roy Berry, directors of Ivy Music, currently in Bermuda arrive in New York on October 28 to study the American music scene and negotiate an exchange of material.

EMI hosted a reception for Dion in London for a short promotional visit in connection with his stateside hit "Runaround Sue" released here on Top Rank. TV appearances have also been lined up. Decca released a cover version of "Runaround Sue" by newcomer Doug Sheldon and confidently expect him to join the label's current chart entrants Eden Kane, Billy Fury and Karl Denver.

Topping the Decca releases comes the latest Presley double from the American charts "His Latest Flame" and "Little Sister" on RCA. The same label gives us Floyd Cramer's "Your Last Goodbye" and Sam Cooke's "Feel It."

CANADA

Harold Pounds, head of Sparton Records, was in Montreal recently to see his big Canadian seller Paul Anka at the Forum. During his visit, he met with Cash Box and announced personnel changes and promotions. He reported, Jim Corbitt, former Montreal sales manager, as the eastern Canada sales supervisor for Sparton. New appointments include Gil White, salesman, formerly with Quality and Len Brennan for the North Bay-Northern Ontario region. A new distributor has been installed in the Winnipeg area for the Westminster line, they are M.R.B. Agency. Westminster is in the Sparton catalog. The above news climaxes a three week cross country trip by Pounds and Larry Page, V.P.

Z. Richards informed Cash Box that a new booking firm known as Dorian Attractions has been formed. Firm's initial show featured Dion, Johnny Tillotson, The Belmonts and Ronnie Lane. The show went into Moncton, N.B., St. John's, N.B., and Halifax, N.S. on Oct. 6-7-8, respectively. The largest drawing was reported in Halifax where deejay Sandy Hoyt emceed the show. After this successful showing, Richards announced another show for the Maritimes area. This time the show will star Ral Donner, Tony Orlando, Ray Stevens, Janie Grant, The Bachelors plus Bobby Vinton and his Ork. They will work in Sydney, N.S. on Oct. 25 and in Fredricton, N.B. on Oct. 26.

John Williams of Columbia really excited over the sales on "Big Bad John" by Jimmy Dean. The disk, which broke last week in every big market, is No. 7 in Canada's Top Ten after only one week of action.

Wray Rutledge, national promo man for Quality, sent D.J.'s an unusual package containing a large whiskey flavored coffee chocolate bar, a key ring, an Irish coin, and a copy of "Irish Cha Cha" by The Al Martin Seven on the Reo label. With this kind of promotion the disk has a good chance of breaking.

The Paul Anka Show co-starring Dick Clark, Chubby Checker, Linda Scott, Duane Eddy, Clarence Henry, The Shirelles, and The Jive Five, drew more than 11,000 Montrealers for two shows on Oct. 15. On Oct. 8, the show fared badly on its only other Canadian date in Toronto.

It's remarkable, at times, to notice how well an artist or a particular record will sell solidly in one market, yet do only "so-so" in close-by markets. For example, "I'm Gonna Knock On Your Door" by Eddie Hodges and "Wheels" by The String-A-Longs were the two biggest records in the Province of Quebec during the last year. In the rest of Canada and south of the border these disks were hits but these markets were left far behind in comparing proportional sales with Quebec. The same goes for the current London smash, "Pepito" by The Muchucambos. In fact, this Spanish disk could not possibly be put on the English Top Ten since more than nine-tenths of the sales came from Quebec, where 85% of the province is French. Another oddity is the fact that most of Anka's disks usually sell better in Quebec than any other Canadian market. This is amazing since he was born in Ontario. The fact that his show fared better in Montreal than in Toronto helps to prove this point.

Thanks to "Buck" Lacombe for his letter concerning Dominique Michel. Lacombe, who is part owner of Venus Records, informed Cash Box that Venus Records has an exclusive with songstress Dominique Michel. Venus granted permission to Apex for the recording of "Jus d'Orange Et Cafe" only. Lacombe adds that Dominique recently recorded an in person album at the Casa Loma for Venus.

The exposure of the French song, "Non Je Ne Regrette Rien" recorded by Edith Piaf is nearly fantastic. The recording has been on the charts for over six months. The popularity of the tune is so great that nearly every French singer has it in their repertoire. A night rarely goes by without it being performed in every French night club that has a show. Television and radio artists have also kept the hit alive. And so Edith Piaf, after all this time, is still on the charts with "Regrette Rien" in the No. 7 slot. Miss Piaf, whose name is an institution in Canada, continues to be the best female album seller. Even her past singles are steady catalog items.

Records to watch closely in Canada during the next two weeks include: "Heartaches" by The Marcells on Colpix, "I Want To Thank You" by Bobby Rydell on Cameo, "Tower Of Strength" by Gene McDaniels on Liberty, "What A Party" by Fats Domino on Imperial, "Crazy" by Patsy Cline on Decca, "Moon River" by Jerry Butler on Veejay and Henry Mancini on Victor, "Yours" by The Beaumarks, and "My Heart Belongs To Only You" by Jackie Wilson on Brunswick.

ARGENTINA

Juan Carlos Crottogini, of the Edami Publishers staff, is already in the United States, after having made a tour of several countries, including Chile, Peru, Venezuela and others. Crottogini must return to Buenos Aires the last days of October.

Mauricio S. Brenner is also planning a visit to Venezuela and Peru. He will start operations of Fermata Publishers representatives in those countries, and coordinate its work with the main offices, which are in Buenos Aires and Sao Paulo, Brazil. He'll probably fly to Caracas in a couple of weeks.

Julio Korn Publishers working hard on "Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien," the tune composed by Charles Dumont and sung so beautifully by Edith Piaf. Besides her waxing (released here by Odeon) there are already some others planned: Los Cinco Latinos (Columbia) have already recorded it in Spanish, and the record will appear very soon. Liza Fontan, another Columbia artist, will also cut it in Spanish.

Pepe Reyes and Nila Valdez, tropical singers recently inked by Odeon Pops, have started a biz trip to several Argentine provinces. They will perform in the same show. This was considered "very good" by Jose A. Rota, A&R of Odeon who told us that "this thing will attract more people to see them than if each one made his own show; many other artists should have to consider the possibility of making" caravans of stars "for their own benefit."

Jose Carli, musician and arranger, has been inked by TV Channel 7 for a series of programs that will last about two months. Carli's last waxing for Columbia is "Apache" and "Hava Naguila."

Carlos Medina, disk jockey and producer of "South America by Night," one of the most successful record programs, is also starting a TV series. The title is "Hit Parade of S.A. by Night," and will be telecasted by Channel 7, Monday nights.

Olga Guillot will be here in November. She will work on TV and theatre, and will stay here for a couple of weeks. Olga is very popular in other South and Centro American countries, but her records haven't been released here. Now, Odeon will probably put in the market her version of "Escandalo."

Santiago Adamini (president of SADAIC, Argentine Society of Authors and Composers) and Emilio Fuster, general manager, started a trip to several countries October 12. Adamini and Fuster will get in touch with authorial organizations in Peru, Mexico and the United States.

After "Escandalo," Rosamel Araya will record "Por Un Amor," bolero penned by D'Alloe and Daniel, and "La Sombra," written by Araya and Oscar Valles.

Rafael Hidalgo and Tony Vilar have been inked by the Club Comunicaciones for the 1962 Carnival dance parties. Vilar's last recording, "And The Heavens Cried," is currently #2 in the Best Sellers list.

"Madrid en Primavera" and "Fronteras," both controlled by Ediciones Quiroga of Spain, will be published by Fermata in Argentina, and probably other South American countries. The same publisher announces also he'll publish "Dans Le Creux de ta Main" (En el Hueco de tu Mano), first prize of the recent Mediterranean Song Festival.

News from RCA: Horacio Salgan will record a full LP devoted to tunes composed by Enrique Cadizamo and Juan Carlos Cobian. Some of the titles will be "Nostalgias," "Dolor Milonguero," "Nieblas del Riachuelo" and "Muñeca Cruel."

Ariel Records reports very good sales of Steve Lawrence's recordings, "Footsteps" and "Why." A new single by the same artist, "Going Steady," will soon be released.

Dany Delmin, one of Disc Jockey's top stars, has recently returned from a successful trip to the United States and Canada. His next records will be "Un petit Becot" (Canadian hit) and "Que Pizza Napolitana," penned by himself.

Sicamericana is busy with the movement caused by its three current hits and two "best bets," informs Alberto Taylor Zapiola, promotion man of the label. The hits are "Wheels" by Billy Vaughn, "Unica" by Siro San Roman, and "Total Para Que" by Los Pilares. Good bets are "Luminarias" (Los Angeles) and "Come September" by Billy Vaughn. According to Taylor, there are some other aces hidden in the sleeve.

More about RCA: The label is preparing a Spanish version of "Crying," Roy Orbison's recent hit. Rocky Pontoni, member of the "New Wave," will record a slow rock penned by himself: "Edad." Johnny Tedesco has recorded "Presumida," Mexican hit (rock 'n roll). (The same tune has been recorded by the Teen Tops for Columbia).

Odeon announced new Latin American releases, according to the recently settled plan of cooperation with another EMI branches of the Continent: "Macchu Picchu," LP with Peruvian music recorded in Lima by Jorge Huirse, well known Argentine musician, a single by Los Kipus, Peruvian group currently performing in Mendoza, and some records by Pedro Otiniano, bolero singer.

AUSTRALIA

The Belinda Music group of companies has moved into larger and more modern offices in the new wing of Macdonell House in Pitt Street, Sydney. Since the new suite is on the same floor as the old Belinda offices there will be no change of address. The opening of the new offices was celebrated recently with a special trade party. Belinda's expansion over the past eighteen months has been rapid and the latest development is the formation of a new company known as Benday Music (Australia) Pty. Ltd., this is a jointly owned venture with Brook Benton, the popular American recording star who is well known in Australia through his successful records. First property being handled by Benday in Australia is Benton's "Frankie And Johnny" copyright.

Belinda is now building up a catalog of Australian light music and one of the recent acquisitions is "Still Waters," an orchestral score by Clifford Phillips which won the "Advertiser" competition for Australian writers in Adelaide recently. This work is now being performed on ABC programs here on radio and recently had its premiere performance with a large orchestra at a Hobart concert.

A new album release on EMI's London label is Ricky Nelson's "Rick Is 21" package which carries his two latest hits "Hello Mary Lou" and "Travellin' Man."

Jim Cuff, merchandising manager for RCA Records of Australia, reports that results with the first local releases of the "Stereos Action" range of albums has been "fabulous" and sales interest appears to be growing all the while. Jim also reports that the trade is very excited about Harry Belafonte's "Jump UP Calypso" album which has just been released. It looks like another strong LP for Belafonte and RCA.

Great local interest is developing in the Australian and New Zealand concert tour of Cliff Richard and The Shadows. Cliff is currently doing well here with his single "A Girl Like You" while The Shadows are making the charts with their latest single release "Kon Tiki." Several local artists have been added to the bill to tour with Cliff and The Shadows.

Australian Record Company has advised Cash Box of some company moves which involve both the New South Wales and Victorian offices. Colin Caterson has been promoted from New South Wales sales manager to the newly created post of manager of creative services for Australian Record Company Ltd. Caterson moved to A.R.C. from Hugh Berry Company Advertising Agency in 1958 as Advertising Manager and in 1959 was appointed NSW Sales Manager. In his new post, Colin will be responsible for advertising and other creative duties right across ARC's activities.

ARC has also announced the appointment of sales supervisors for its New South Wales and Victorian sales organizations. Ron Calcutt, who takes over the new post in NSW, started with ARC in 1958 as a country sales rep. Immediately prior to his new appointment Ron was handling specialty selling for ARC's labels throughout New South Wales.

Jack Gribble moves up to Victorian sales supervisor and has appointed two new suburban reps—Wally Pollock and Maurice Spillane. Jack Gribble has been five years with ARC, first as a suburban sales rep and during the past twelve months as senior salesman covering the city area of Melbourne.

These new sales appointments have been made in line with ARC's growth in the record industry. August last they added the UA label to its Coronet (US Columbia) and Warner Bros. catalog firm and since then released material from its other new labels—Hickory, Vee Jay, Sue and the Class/Checker/Argo group.

The Festival group released—on its Ampar label—one of America's hottest singles "Hit The Road Jack" by Ray Charles, this one should be the most successful single that Charles has ever had in this country. Charles has only had minor success with his past singles, but "Hit The Road Jack" stands a real chance of being a big one for this artist who is one of the most consistent disk attractions in the U.S.

Also from Festival comes a new single by popular Noeleen Batley. Top side is "Ice Cream Man," a new song written by Helen Grover, who is on the staff of Belinda Music. The coupling is "Over In That Happy Land." The Batley/Grover combination scored pretty well with Noeleen's first single release "Barefoot Boy" and "Ice Cream Man" is being tipped for even greater sales.

W&G Records recently issued the second in its range of "4 On 1 Super Discs," which carry four complete tracks and retail at the regular single price of 10/-. The new one features Freddy Scott (of Joy Records in USA) with "I Gotta Stand Tall"; "Lost The Right"; "When The Wind Changes," and "Baby You're A Long Time Dead." Other new issues from W&G include "Sailor Man" by Bobby Bare and the comedy album "The Weird And The Beard" by Dale Stevens and Jack Clements, both are drawn from the Fraternity label in America.

Popular American group The Four Lads are due in Australia shortly for a series of television appearances, their visit should revive interest in their many records that have been issued here over the years.

DENMARK

As yet, there is no change in the dispute between the musicians and the record companies. Negotiations are going on and people here expect the situation to be solved within the near future. Since October 1, there have been no recordings made in Denmark since the record companies have not accepted new conditions the musicians want.

Radio Merkur, the so called pirate radio station, will soon cover whole Denmark since a second ship will operate from Store Baelt. The first ship operates from Oresund (The Sound) between Denmark and Sweden. In the meantime, the Danish government is looking for new ways to stop the activity of these stations, among others. All telephone contacts between Copenhagen and the ships has been stopped by Gunnar Pedersen, director general for Post and Telegraph Co. in Denmark, who explained that "the telephone and radio activity with the illegal stations is so heavy that it hurts the normal communications with other ships."

So called avantgarde jazz is the last cry here. Nam June Paik, a Korean pianist recently presented his idea of the music. He used two old pianos, a couple of tape recorders played with different speeds, two loudspeakers, a telephone, a slate with color crayons and some wine glasses. The result is something very strange, but none of the critics took it seriously.

Two new record artists have appeared here. Jorgen Sixhoj, who sings and plays the bass, and Leif Slot, who plays the harmonica.

FINLAND

American recording star, Jay Epae (Mercury) to Finland for a program on the commercial Tes-TV October 25. Swedish singer Mona Grain was presented in a program of her own on Tes-TV recently. Government noncommercial TV presented a program with Danish EMI artist Gitte on October 5, and Danish-Italian singer Dario Campeotto will be seen November 30 and Umberto Marcato November 2.

"Granada" with Frank Sinatra on a single on the label Reprise just bowed on the Finnish market, is doing very well and has all possibilities of becoming a big hit, reports Paavo Einiö of Scandia-Musiikki Oy.

NORWAY

The film "The Alamo" opened in Oslo on October 9. Philips is expecting a lot from the sale of "The Ballad Of Alamo" with Marty Robbins, and the company has started a special drive for the record in connection with the film.

Triola has presented a new Norwegian group, The Key Brothers, singing "Marianna" and "Fjerne Land" on their debut record. The latter song is the German "Weisses Land." The American record "Sad Movies (Make Me Cry)" with Sue Thompson was released on Triola here last week.

SWEDEN

Jay Epae and Fabian to Stockholm yesterday (October 14), being top stars of "Biggest show in Sweden" tonight.

Singer Bertil Englund, formerly with Sonet, has signed contract with EMI. Dag Haeggqvist, head of Gazell Records, reports that Ernie Englund made a recording upon special request from Germany. The two numbers are "Autumn Serenade" and "Freie Abend." Also Colpix in the U.S. will release the two numbers.

SBC-TV (Swedish Broadcasting Co.-TV) has started a weekly Hit Parade program in which 400 teenagers vote for the records they like best of all. A selection of records was played, and the youths pressed a button if they liked what they heard. 15 records were played, and most votes were given to "I'm Going To Knock On Your Door" with Eddie Hodges on Cadence, followed by "Violetta" with Norwegian singer Ray Adams on Fontana with "Hello Mary Lou" with Ricky Nelson on California as third. The next records in the list were "Putti Putti" (Jay Epae/Mercury), "Alpens Ros" (Swedish—The Violents/Sonet), "Moody River" (Pat Boone/Dot), "A Girl Like You" (Cliff Richard/Columbia), "En Tuff Brud I Lyxförpackning"/"Soria Moria" (Swedish/Norwegian—Lill-Babs/Kausell and Ray Adams/Fontana—these two shared the eighth spot) and finally "Du Har Bara Lekt Med Mej" ("Foolin' Around"—Siv Malmquist/Metronome). This program, titled "Tio I Topp" (Ten At The Top) will be made regularly by SBC-TV. Not liked among the records played were, among others, "Little Sister" with Elvis Presley.

FRANCE

We ran into F. Machin, assistant director general of EMI in Paris, a few days ago, and he was able to tell us about some of the changes about to take place in EMI's French organization. Minchin, himself, has been appointed director general of EMI in Milan and his place in Paris will be taken by Rouzies, who used to manage Pathé's plant at Thonon. De Roquefeuille, formerly with Philips where he maintained the liaison between customers factory and the sales set-up, will become Pathé's general sales chief—a real promotion. Roger Marouani, former label chief at MGM will take over Pathé's "pop" sales section. We recall that Minchin served as assistant director-general in Milan during 1960 and that his new post also represents a real promotion, although he did not mention that. These modifications, already in effect, will become official at the end of December. Valoussière continues as Pathé Director of Sales.

Paul Beuscher Music Publishers currently promoting a marvelous tune for Edith Piaf, "Les Amants," music by Charles Dumont who has recorded the song with Piaf on the Columbia label. Jean-Claude Pascale has also waxed "Les Amants" for His Master's Voice. And following the trend of rock 'n roll in France, the same publishing firm has a French version (words by Hubert Ithier) of "D in Love" that Cliff Richard created. It's called "Trois en amour" and Richard Anthony as well as Les Chats Sauvages have waxed this rockin' rock. Les Chats . . . have also recorded "Theme for a Dream" (French title: "C'est pas sérieux") which might become one of the best of the French-recorded rocks. Several instrumental versions are also available, including one by Caravelli et ses violons magiques (Versailles). "Lamp of Love" has become "Yeh, Yeh, Yeh" in French and Les Chats Sauvages have added this tune too to their recorded series.

Colette Dereal's contract with Deutsche-Grammophon has expired and negotiations are underway for its renewal. The contract of the Compagnons de la Chanson has also reached its end and everyone is guessing as far as its renewal is concerned.

It might be said that Jackie Seven is the last but not the least of the new wave of rock singers for her recordings to date prove that this 18-year-old Belgian girl has what it takes to make the front ranks of the rock crowd. And Bel-Air's rockin' Pirates are catching on like wild fire, especially when it comes to The Twist. Achir Chemouny of Acir-Automatic confirms this news which juke-box plays of the Pirates serve to prove.

Tino Rossi has kept a faithful following all these years and his records prove it. His latest waxing is excellent—it's "Guitar Tango" for Pathé. Jerry Mengo, whose A&R man is G. Cote, has also recorded this tune. Mengo and Tony Mureno (Barclay) have made available their versions of Brel's famous "Le moribond." Thanks to Connie Francis' recording of "Jealous of You," the French adaptation entitled "Rien" is also becoming popular. And speaking of Connie, let it be said that her success in last week's "Musicorama" series at the Olympia was magnificent—but really something! "Rien," in addition to this original on MGM, has been waxed by Pierre Sellin (Fontana), Sarlek (Philips), Marino Marini (Durim-Vogue) and Luis Pena (Ducretet).

During the visit of the Iranian royal couple to Paris, Nana Mouskouri, Fontana's Greek singer, was presented personally to Farah Diba. Tutti Editions published "Dans le creux de ta main" which was the No. 1 song at the Barcelona Mediterranean Song Festival where Robert Jeantal and Jacqueline Nero represented France.

Seignette Polydor will have John William record "La terre promise" while Maya Casabianca takes care of the female version of the tune. Caravelli and his violinists have waxed this one for Philips and the venture is the first joint Philips-Polydor operation on file.

The only French girl singer chosen by the U.S. jazzmen for their Olympia concert on October 10 was Nicole Croisille.

The radio feature called "La Note du Disquaire," reports that the best-selling classical record of the present period is the David Oistrakh-Issac Stern disk of Vivaldi's "Four Concertos for Violin and Orchestra." And the all-time best-seller in classics was the Albinoni "Adagio" recorded by Jean Vitold for Vogue-Counterpoint.

MEXICO

Representative Max Kozlowsky has announced that he is almost set to bring to México beautiful German actress Romy Schneider and her fiancée, actor Alain Delon, to perform in night clubs, TV and movies. Max says that he is trying to sign contracts with Vittorio Gassman and Anna Magnani.

Enrique Guzmán to Caracas, Venezuela, to fulfill a contract in night club and TV. After Caracas (where Cesar Costa is now performing), Enrique will work in Puerto Rico and return to his country at the end of this year. By that time, his second LP will be released.

Almost finished is an LP made by Gustavo Pimental at the Orfeon label on which he and his orchestra play percussions. "Granada," "Frenesi," "Brasil" and others are included in this album. At the same time, Gustavo is finishing another LP with the soloists of his orchestra.

Antonio Bribiesca, the best folk guitarist of the country, recorded 12 of our most beautiful songs like "Rayando el sol," "Allá en el rancho grande," "Las Chiapanecas," "La Barca de oro," "El abandonado," "Las Golondrinas" on the Columbia label. This is one of the best albums ever recorded of Mexican folk music.

Beautiful actress and occasional singer Ana Luisa Peluffo will fly to Argentina to make a picture with Mirtha Legrand and Jorge Mistrall. This won't take more than one month, and she will return to México to fulfill a TV deal.

A strange combination of rhythms, where rock and roll is a principal part, cut at Orfeon label by singer Irma Dorantes. The name of the song is "Sola," having on the other side another Venezuelan song, "El chirulí." Irma performed successfully in Los Angeles at the Million Dollar recently.

Everything is ready for Louis Armstrong in his first visit to México, where he will perform at the National Auditorium October 26 in six or seven different shows. There's big radio promotion on the event.

A big homage is being prepared by Mexican TV for the most popular Mexican trio of all the time, Los Panchos. The show will be filmed on video-tape and will be broadcast through all the country. Columbia announced the latest Los Panchos' album, named "Recuerdos de Ti" (Memories of You) on which they sing their top hits: "La Barca," "El Reloj," "Pecado," "Espérame en el Cielo" and others. Perhaps the second most popular trio, Los Diamantes, celebrating their 12th anniversary together. In this time, Los Diamantes recorded more than 80 singles and 9 LP's at RCA Victor. They just left the country to perform in Argentina for two weeks.

Victor also announced that the latest Marco Antonio Muñoz recordings will be recorded in France by its subsidiary there. His latest hit is "Mala Ley" (Bad Law).

The Silva Brothers, Chilean vocal group who settled in México, performed at the Million Dollar theater of Los Angeles. In their latest Victor recording, they used an orchestra's setting for the first time.

A smash hit could be Julissa's new recording for Columbia, the Spanish version of Brenda Lee's "Dum Dum" with Chuck Anderson's orchestra.

For a short season, tropical singer Tony Moro will perform again in México City, where he last worked in 1953. After México, Tony will perform in England, Spain and Italy.

The Teen Tops will try to get another smash hit as Presumida with its new recording, "Popotitos." Kennie Smith replaced Enrique Guzmán in the group The Platters in town to reopen the Social Ritz night club. Two of the members of this group speak Spanish fluently.

Argentinian singer Roberto Yanés, who's performing at La Fuente and on TV, has been very well received by the Mexican audience.

ITALY

The great new RCA sound recording stage in Rome will possibly be ready for work in February.

Ricordi is working strongly on five soundtracks from foreign films. Along with the WB rep in Italy, pic firm is arranging an exciting release of the motion picture, "Parrish," and its "Lucy's Theme," by George Greeley on the WB label was released here four weeks ago and entered the charts; the soundtrack from the movie, "The Guns Of Navarrone," appeared here in the version by Joe Reisman on the Round Table label in Italy; "The Sundowners" (translated in Italian "I Nomadi") is available by Gianfranco Intra on Bluebell; the music from "One-Eyed Jacks" already known via the version by Caterina Valente on Decca; the music from "Breakfast At Tiffany's."

The first LP by the Italian singer who this year revealed himself as our number one artist, Nico Fidenco, on RCA Italiana, was just released here. Recently his label announced that it had reached the one million mark on the sale of Fidenco's records.

A recent interesting LP release from VCM titled "Gino Bechi Show" features marvelous old Italian songs and surely will meet with success. This LP includes 12 old pieces. Another most interesting pick from VCM's record catalog is Capitol's LP "Broadway At Night," along with the set "Wild Is Love" by Nat Cole, which features a wonderfully illustrated booklet about love. VCM just released "All In A Night's Work" by Dean Martin on Capitol. The film which the tune is taken from is currently being shown in Milan. Pino Donaggio, whose latest hit is titled "Pera Matura" (Ripe Pear), will launch his new composition "Il Mio Sotterraneo" (My Tunnel) on the next Canzonissima show. Also interesting is the new Corrado Lojacono release, "Non So Resisterti" (I Don't Know How To Resist You). Singer Gege, also recording on VCM and who won a prize at the last Naples Festival, with "Tutta A Famiglia" (The Whole Family), will tour Southern Italy for 18 days, while foreign singer Ralf Bendix who is the interpreter of "Babysittin' Boogie" will visit Milan at the end of October.

The ever increasing success of "Pepito" by Los Machucambos on Decca label, now the number two song in Italy, is exceptional.

The best sellers on the London label are currently Felix Slatkin's "Exodus" with "The Magnificent Seven," "The Exodus Song" by Pat Boone, "Cielito Lindo" (Sky High) by The Champs, "Theme From Dixie" with "The Battle" by Duane Eddy, recently released is currently on the Decca-London Top Ten.

Rifi Records released two record versions of the number one record in France, "Brigitte Bardot"—the version by Rubito Dallas (the tape of this recording comes to Rifi Records from Belgium), and the version by Michelino is the domestic one. It is also available in Italy via Durium's version by Roberto Seto, which comes from Vogue. Rifi Records also announced a new big record, "Bark-A-Rolla" by Morty Craft's Orchestra.

Durium released "Italian Lovers" by Little Tony, who sang it on Canzonissima, and "La Ballata Della Tromba" (The Ballad Of The Trumpet) by Nino Rosso.

GCG is proud to add among its distributors Editorial Antar S.A.—Uruguay. Peter DeAngelis is in Milan to cut new recordings with Bluebell. Mr. Casetta, back from a short stay in New York, will give the Cash Box news about it next week.

The First Canzonissima show was on the evening of October 10, and was devoted exclusively to new songs never heard before. This will be its format for the season.

Frank Carenza, the Canadian disk jockey who is responsible for the local Italian broadcasts in that country, titled "Songs Of Sunny Italy," celebrated his 17th anniversary on the air, becoming Canada's oldest and most popular Italian programmers. Carenza devotes his efforts to stimulate the prestige of Italian records and artists in his country.

GERMANY

The new season is underway, but no new trends are in evidence to give the season its big kickoff. Record firms here are continuing to issue new versions of old standard material with a new sound and sometimes a new text. Name artists such as Gus Backus, Caterina Valente, Freddy, etc. continue to turn out hits for their fans and novelty numbers such as "Pepito" and "Zuckerpuppe" are also popular items on the charts. Although the record industry predicts a strong comeback for teenbeat material, the few strong rock numbers that are now on the market have failed to make the charts. One other trend is strongly in evidence. The middle hits are just no longer there. It used to be that a fairly weak record could still count on sales of 10,000 and more and a fairly strong number would sell 20 to 40,000 with no trouble. A top hit then sold about 100,000. These days, a top hit can reach the million mark, but the weak and fairly strong numbers are selling under 15,000. It's strictly a hit or miss proposition in the record industry here today and record firms are concentrating stronger than ever on top artists and "plug" items.

Gerig Music is hard at work pushing both sides of the new Will Brandes record, the song "Von Tahiti Nach Hawaii" by The Blue Capris and "Uberall" by Fred Bertelmann all on Polydor. Peter Lach reports that his Capriccio Music Firm is just starting its operation in Hamburg and already have waxings by The Blue Diamonds, Ria Valk, Der Flotte Johnny, Maria Zamora all on Philips or Fontana.

Radio Luxemburg reports that its Germany hit parade coincides closely with the Cash Box listings. On the top is Freddy with "La Paloma," in second place is Nana Mouskouri with "Weisse Rosen Aus Athen," in 3rd slot is "Hello Mary Lou" by Ricky Nelson and the 4th place number is "Der Mann Im Mond" from Gus Backus.

Pardon My Slip: Metronome records reports that it's still handling the Prestige line of records from the states and the New Jazz label of Prestige instead of Bernhard Mikulski Import as recently reported. Mr. Mikulski is handling the Bluesville and Swingsville lines of the firm.

Heidi Bruhl, one of Germany's most popular teenage larks, is making her first trip to the U.S. in November. Heidi is set for radio and TV shows in New York and Chicago and will then go on to Hollywood and San Francisco for a screen test. The good looking blond gal from Munich is already a top film star here.

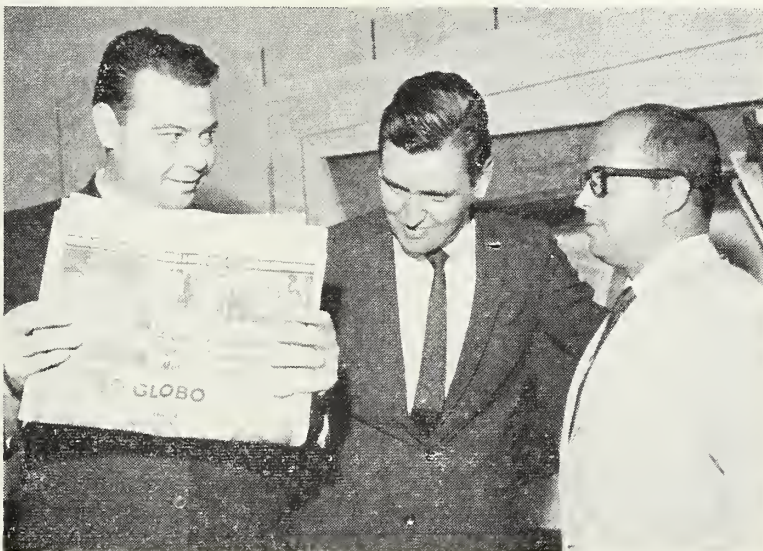

Chris Howland, who began a new DJ show with artists October 22, had The Blue Diamonds and Peter Beil as guests on his first show.

Broadway shows are really making their mark in Europe. "My Fair Lady" is set to open in Berlin in the next few days, and in Copenhagen Vivi Bach will take over the roll of Eliza for the showings there.

"Irma La Douce" is also set for openings in Berlin, Vienna and Finland. Karlheinz Busse reports that he has formed 3 new publishing firms. One of the firms with headquarters in Milan, Italy is in connection with Universal Music Publishing group of Switzerland, Austria and England and the Carisch Organization of Italy. The firm is called Musichouse Edizioni Musicali. The firm has its own production of records through the Carisch group of record firms. The other firms in Munich are Musichouse Edition and ABC Musikverlag. A film and TV production firm has also been formed under the name Musichouse Film, Fernseh and Musikproduktion's GMBH. The first film under the new company will be Musik Review 1962 and will feature record stars Lolita, Die Missouris, Ted Herold, Leo Leandros, Nana Gualdi, Franzl Lang, Bruce Low, Gaby King, Jan & Kjeld, Peggy Brown, and Barbel Ewers.

That's it for this week in Germany.

JAPAN

Giuseppe Giannini, representing Compagnia General Del Corso (CGD) and Galleria Del Corso SRL (G.D.) in Italy, arrived in Japan recently. His main reason for coming here, he stated, was to meet the people of Japan's King, distributors of CGD here. Moreover, the visit was to open the way for two Italian pop singers into the TV and night club markets here—Johnny Dorelli and Betty Curtis, whom he called the number one male and female singers in Italy. They are expected to be here in mid-November and then again in February. He also conferred with other people here but nothing definite has been signed as yet. He left Tokyo October 7 for Italy via Copenhagen, where he will confer with local diskeries there.

Toshiba contracted with Mataichi Matsumura, free lance writer for our local tunes, who had been writing for King, disbanded Mercury and Grammophone.

Teichiku Records Co. Ltd. announced that it had decided to merge with Matshushita Electric Appliance Co. Ltd. in order to stabilize the foundation of the firm's management and expand its business activities.

Japan is now going through a "revival boom," as many old hits are being released again by new artists. Columbia is making a brand new addition to this boom by releasing "Tokyo-no Hana-uri Musume" (Flower Girl In Tokyo). The tune, penned by Miyuki Ishimoto and Gento Uehara, was once recorded on King Records by Haruo Oka, now retired. The tune became a big smash hit here, just like Jimmie Davis and Charles Mitchell's "You Are My Sunshine." The recording artist this time is Ichiro Kambe.

Grammophone promoted Hiroshi Kondo from A & R director's sub-chief to the head of that section.

The Perry Como Show is back again on local TV. The show, an hour long color video program, will be telecast weekly until the end of the year.

The French group, The Theatre National de l'Opera de Paris, left Tokyo for Paris after completing a series of 11 full length performances of "Carmen" in this country. Another opera troupe, "Lirica Italiana," is now giving its stage performances in Tokyo. The opening performance was "Andrea Chenier" composed by Giordano, featuring world famous Mario Del Monaco and Renata Tebaldi and others.

Another visiting team here now is The Vienna Choir Boys, who started their singing concert on September 28 in Tokyo. The program included a concerto by Bach, Mozart's Duo for Violin and Viola, Brahms' Violin Sonata #1 and others. On October 9, the group recorded four Japanese songs featuring "Sakura Sakura" (Cherry Blossom), "Sohran Bushi" and two others which are expected to be released at the beginning of November through Victor.

Russian baritone Sergei Shaposhnikov will arrive here in November for a one month concert tour.

CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"TALL MEN" (1:54) [Robbins ASCAP—Darby]
"TENNESSEE FLAT-TOP BOX" (2:58) [Cash BMI—Cash]
JOHNNY CASH (Columbia 42147)

Johnny Cash should make a return to the country/pop charts with his easy-going chanting of the theme from the 20th-Fox flick. Femme chorus is used effectively to backstop over the infectious beat. There should also be some interest in the folk-like tale of the amazing boy who played the "Tennessee Flat-Top Box."

"GO ON HOME" (2:28)

[Pamper BMI—Cochran]

"IMITATION" (2:47)

[Cedarwood BMI—Walker, Stanton]

MARION WORTH (Columbia 42184)

The sweetest voice thrush could easily cash in on both sides of her new pairing. Both "Go On Home" (by the late Hank Cochran) and "Imitation" fall into the slow weeping ballad category but in Marion's hands they become much more than that—believable experiences. Her clean phrasing, immaculate diction and melodious voice combine for a hard-to-match combination.

"TLL TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR BABY" (2:09)

[Aldon BMI—King, Goffin]

"LEGEND OF SLEEPY HOLLOW" (2:37)

[Central Songs BMI—Howard]

RALPH EMERY (Liberty 55383)

Emery, who talked his way into a hit with "Hello Fool" can do the same with this answer to Bobby Vee's pop hit. In his affectionate "talking" style he gets an almost tongue-in-cheek approach to the simple lyric. A strange deck that could prove to be another hit for the WSM deejay. Harlan Howard's version of the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow" is another appealing Emery "talk" on the coupler.

"IT'S NOT EASY" (2:46) [Starday BMI—Miller]

"THE CAT AND THE MOUSE" (2:29) [Starday BMI—Miller, Hill]

FRANKIE MILLER (Starday 566)

Frankie Miller's absence from the charts (except for a recent revival of "Blackland Farmer") could quickly be rectified when "It's Not Easy" gets heard. Slow and tearstained is the song, sincere and feelingful is the performance. "The Cat And The Mouse," also with potential, is a cute novelty tale.

DICK MILLER (Toppa 1048)

(B+) "WORLD'S CHAMPION FOOL" (2:38) [Monday BMI—Williams] Miller bows in on Toppa and could turn in a click trick with the superb chanting he displays on this sturdy-beat tear-jerker. Piano accompaniment is stand-out.

(B) "BACK INTO YOUR PAST" (2:30) [Mixer BMI—Gandy, Miller] Conventional middle beat country item with a familiar melody is essayed here.

JOHNNY SEAY (Capitol 4646)

(B+) "THE WAYWARD WIND" (2:53) [Warman BMI—Lebowski, Newman] Gogi Grant's two-time pop winner shows up in an effective country setting with Johnny Seay's deep voice possibly showing the way to another click journey for the opus.

(B) "LIVIN' IS LOVIN'" (2:51) [Moss Rose BMI—Powell] Very slow ballad is offered in hauntingly languid terms here.

BOB WILLS & TOMMY DUNCAN (Liberty 55378)

(B) "I'M CRYING MY HEART OUT" (2:19) [Yosemite BMI—Walker] The western swing orksters pleasantly survey an easy-going weeper. Has a sound for limited markets.

(C+) "SIESTA" (2:25) [Yosemite BMI—Travis, Wills, Duncan] The Mexican flavor, a familiar sound in the Wills-Duncan band book, is embraced here in an OK deck.

JIMMY MARTIN (Decca 31311)

(B+) "THERE WAS A LOVE" (2:00) [Magic Circle BMI—Williams, Martin] To an appealing maching beat, Martin and chorus offer some straight country remarks on several historical love affairs. Has good airplay potential.

(B+) "I CAN, I WILL, I DO BELIEVE" (2:00) [Champion BMI—Williams, Martin] An infectious hand-clapper in true hillbilly tradition has an affectionate romantic theme.

KATHY DEE (Carlton 563)

(B) "LIVIN' ON LOVE" (2:46) [B-W BMI—Dee] Carlton's initial country music entry offers new talent Kathy Dee, an appealingly-voiced thrush with a solid country feeling, in a familiar up-tempo romantic setting. Could make its mark in the field.

(B) "SUBTRACT HIS LOVE" (2:05) [B-W BMI—Dee] Quiet ballad is attractively warbled here. Gal has a warm and tender approach.

JIM NESBITT (Rush 2003)

(B) "NEW FRONTIER" [Ralph's Radio, Delrush BMI—Nesbitt] Nesbitt's "Please Mr. Kennedy" created a stir recently and his follow-up, also a plea to the President, could also win friends.

(C) "HUSBAND IN LAW" [Rally, Delrush BMI—Nesbitt] Comedy effort here falls flat. Not much airplay possibilities.

COUNTRY ROUND UP

Red Foley will regretfully miss this year's deejay festival in Nashville, foregoing the opportunity to howdy 'n' shake with the many jockeys who have spun his current "Dear Young Lovers"/"South" into the best Foley release in four years. Red is committed to Nov. 3-4 personals, along with Uncle Cyp Brasfield and guitarist Speedy Haworth, at Toronto's formidable old showcase, Massey Hall. Last Saturday (21) was a three-performance day for Red at the Stambaugh Auditorium in Youngstown, O. . . . RadiOzark Enterprises, the country music programming specialists in Springfield, Mo., are readying a new promotional push on their Tennessee Ernie Ford, Red Foley and Smiley Burnette radio shows. Now that Ernie and Red are off network TV, the RadiOzark productions represent their only regular nationwide exposure outside of records. Smiley, whose popularity is more in bloom today than in his movie heydays of the '30s, thanks to the old Autry, Rogers and Starrett films being shown on TV, continues to be the king of the one-nighters: the hefty old trouser in the battered black hat has played 6,100 of them.

Pappy Daily proudly boasting of his Louisiana Colonel commission bestowed upon him by Gov. Jimmie Davis. Daily, recently-appointed head of United Artists Records country music department, has just added George Jones sidekick Georgie Riddle to the UA roster. Riddle was in Nashville last week where Daily A&R'd four sides, two penned by Riddle, two by Darrel Edwards. First coupling is due out in three weeks. George Jones and Riddle now working their way to Nashville via a string of personals in Montana, Oregon and Texas. After a quick hello at the DJ conclave they both plane out to Toronto for two days with Roy Acuff's "Opry" package.

Earl Barton Music's Nashville nabob, Bob "Bevo" Tubert, has returned from a New England vacation. . . . Crosroads TV's John Mahaffey and Si Siman are back at their Ozark HQ from a week in New York City. . . . Shug Fisher, late of "Jubilee U.S.A.," is building a long string of credits in Hollywood TV westerns. He was seen most recently on the new season's premiere of "Have Gun Will Travel" and a recent "Bonanza," with a role coming up in "Gunsmoke."

Prairie Farmer Magazine's annual promo, "Farm Progress Days," drew just over 300,000 persons in Rensselaer, Ind., beginning of this month. The ankle-deep mud proved no hindrance to the crowd-drawing abilities of Carl Smith, Leroy Van Dyke, Slim Wilson and Bill Ring. . . . Ray Bell (Belcher) currently out on a promo tour through Miss. and Ala. plugging his "Blues Tavern"/"Loveless Island" pairing on the recently-reactivated King subsid label, Queen Records. Ray, a former cast member on the "Louisiana Hayride," played bass with Johnny & Jack for a while. . . . Frankie Miller, Lawton Williams and Country Johnny Mathis headed up a benefit show Oct. 14th at Fort Worth's Majestic Theatre in honor of Parker Wilson, erstwhile KCUL disk jockey. A packed house enjoyed the 3-hour festival, which also paraded much local talent. Wilson was forced to abandon all activities since he was taken ill several months ago.

George Jones will venture to Japan, Okinawa and Korea Nov. 13th for a six week tour of the east. Bookings were handled through the Jim Denny Artist Bureau. Lucky Moeller, of the Denny agency, also has set foreign tours for other artists in the stable.

The Carter Family (Mother Maybelle, Anita, June and Helen) will venture to Europe in Nov. for 10 days of Air Force bases. Then in Dec., Kitty Wells and Johnny & Jack do the same Air Base trek for 10 days. These dates were set up between Lucky and Jolly Joyce in N.Y. Moeller also disclosed that the "Opry's Grandpa Jones has joined the Bureau in an exclusive management pact.

Fred Maddox, formerly of the team Maddox Brothers and Rose, is now heading up his own diskery, Flat-Git-It Records out of Norwalk, Calif. Fred's first date for his own label pairs "Who's Gonna Chop My Baby's Kindlin'"/"For Old Times." Also set for release is Fred Rose's "Merry Go Round"/"77 Louisiana Fiddles." Maddox, Rose, Vern Stovall and Bobby George all hold forth nightly at Fred Maddox's Playhouse in Claremont, Calif. Stovall and George cut for Crest Records.

Eddie Matherly is celebrating his second year at WKCW-Warrenton, Va., with a promotion to station manager. He'll still hold down deejay chores and will remain active in promoting local country shows. . . . Red Smith, KLEA-Lovington, N.M., boasting of a new baby boy. . . . Moriss Taylor, KPAY-Chico, Calif., going to try to make it as a singer. His first disk effort should be out by Nov. 15th. It will be on his own label, but processed through Four-Star Sales (Pasadena). . . . Les Kangas infos that "Gear of Love" by Glenn Snow on Kangaroo is getting good west coast reaction. . . . Lefty Frizzell and Texas Bill Strength, both doing personals in the Anchorage, Alaska area, guested on Jimmy Simpson's KBYR radio stanza. . . . The list keeps growing: KWLN-Ashland, Ore., and WAVP-Avon Park, Fla., have joined the full-time country ranks. They both are in need of disks.

An interesting bit of info from Slick Norris regarding the Warren Smith-Shirley Collie coupling. Seems that Warren had never sung with a girl singer before (Ray Sanders had done all the harmony with Warren in studio sessions). So for the harmony work on "Why I'm Walking" and "Why Baby Why," Warren cut it one day and Shirley overdubbed the harmony the next day. Regardless of how it's done, it still sounds good. . . . Slim Whitman's Imperial pairing, "The Old Spinning Wheel"/"In A Hundred Years," getting off to a good start says the label's Nashville rep, Herb Shucher. Herb notes that so far play is split between the two sides. . . . Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys set for dates this month in Texas, Okla., Kans., and Mo. . . . Bill Anderson was the subject of a two-page spread in the Atlantic Journal-Constitution Sunday Magazine Section titled "He's a City Boy Who Writes Country Music." Bill was raised not far from Atlanta.

Friday the 13th turned out a good-luck day for Slick Norris and wife Betty. Their second boy, Michael Richard, weighed in that day at 7 lbs., 9½ oz. Slick says Betty's only regret is that now she won't be able to make the annual jaunt to Nashville next month. . . . Don Owens (no relation to the Don Owens at WAVA-Arlington) commanding the one-to-five segment each morning at KKJO-St. Joseph, Mo. Needs records. . . . Mabelene Baker noting that she'll be representing the recently-formed Kiski Valley label during the Nashville doin's. She's working on disks by the Faulkner Bros. and Jack Cartwright.

Why Seeburg's exclusive ARTIST OF THE WEEK plan makes more money for the independent operator

The experienced independent operator knows that the phonograph designed to sustain interest and excitement among location customers can automatically boost his income.

The phonograph that can do this insures profitable income in top locations. It cements a firm operator-location relationship. It maintains high re-sale value for future trading.

More than that, such a phonograph makes it possible for the operator to obtain more equitable commission arrangements with his locations. For as costs of doing business continue to rise, such arrangements are more than desirable: They are a necessity.

Coin-phonograph music has always reflected—and profited from—the public's taste. Customers have always preferred to play, in locations, the same kind of recorded music they buy for their home phonographs. When the 45-rpm single was riding high at home, it was king on the coin-operated phonograph.

But when the public trend started moving toward the 33½ albums, and store sales of 45s began to slump, the music operator soon found himself in a situation he could not turn to his advantage. His equipment could not play the records most persons were buying for their homes.

When the record industry finally introduced the 33½ stereo single, Seeburg correctly forecast that this was the record that would solve both problems. It would bring adult album music to the juke box once more. It would halt the national decline in single sales.

While others tried to fight it, Seeburg turned it into another "first" by immediately perfecting and introducing automatic intermix of 45s and 33s. As a result, the operator with Seeburg equipment was able at once to profit by this development and to insure against obsolescence of his equipment. Now all other manufacturers are following suit.

The last two years have proved Seeburg was right. Today, 40 record manufacturers—including all the major labels—are issuing their best-selling material on 33½ stereo singles as well as in 33½ albums. As far as the public is concerned, the old 45 is almost history.

Something else has happened, too: Introduction, by record manufacturers, of the dramatic, colorful, album cover. It has long been a powerful sales-stimulator for the expensive 12-inch album. Every record dealer in the world will testify to this.

So when, at Seeburg's suggestion, the manufacturers of 33½ seven-inch record albums added the selling power of exciting covers to their albums, they hit a bonanza. Because—just as with magazines and pocket books—many persons buy an album because they like the cover.

Here was another powerful trend in music-buying that the music operator could now capitalize on because Seeburg—out in front once more—devised a brand-new music merchandising plan, Seeburg's "Artist of the Week." It took the potent album cover and turned it into an income-producing feature for both operator and location.

"ARTIST OF THE WEEK" IS A MUSIC SELLING PROGRAM

First, the phonograph itself. Seeburg automatic intermix, which has never required any adapter kits or devices, is completely use-proved in locations from coast to coast. Operators know it works. As long as they are available, 45s can be freely intermixed with 33½ singles.

Second, Seeburg's Artist of the Week plan can provide the location with a new "show" every week or two—ten popular new album selections all by the same artist. And these are displayed on a special title strip panel to encourage the most play by customers.

Third, the Seeburg Artist of the Week plan brings that proved music salesman—the colorful album cover itself—right to the phonograph. Seeburg's brilliantly lit top panel displays the album cover from which the ten Artist of the Week records have been chosen.

Fourth, for every operator, Seeburg has a compact, portable audio-visual presentation that takes all the guess-work out of selling this profitable plan to the location. It sets up in a minute—on bar or table—and in sound and color pictures spells out the business facts you want the location owner to understand.

The Seeburg Artist of the Week plan has been proved effective over and over. Everywhere it is worked, it boosts income, paves the way for better commission arrangements, and pleases the location customers.

If you do not understand it thoroughly, and what it can do for your business, call your Seeburg distributor and tell him you want a full demonstration. You owe it to yourself, to your business, to do it, soon.

NEW LINES, NEW DISTRIBUTORS, NEW CUSTOMERS

The Changing Scene

Last week's editorial preached the merits of diversification on the part of the coin machine operator, but the message could have been aimed at almost any businessman in this country today. Keeping the thinking within the bounds of our own business however, we need not point only to the operator. What about the distributor who stands still in this era of fierce competition for the sale? Can he expect to progress within his present structure or must he look to additional lines, new customers, new types of equipment, in order to stay on top.

It's interesting to note that during the first nine months of this year twenty-five major distributor changes were made either by the wholesalers themselves or by the respective factories. The change is usually always for the best—and the best that can happen of course is increased sales. New appointments have continued to occur at almost a daily rate and the distributor gaining additional lines can expect increased traffic, an opportunity for added sales to his regular operator-customers, and a general increase in overall business. Just as we have pointed out that a properly conducted export division will eventually bring about increased income, a new line will cause interest, stimulate sales and bring about the necessary traffic—a “must” for increased sales.

It's interesting to note that many of our wholesalers with a quarter of a century and more in the business are still in search of new lines with an eye to expansion or possibly as a means of rounding out a present distributor set-up. Just this week several new appointments were made involving major lines and leading distributors. In most instances new lines require intense effort in order to get off the ground. The continuing effort must be made and in this business that means new lines, expansion into new areas, and the constant development of new customers. Because of the changing scene and competitive picture most distributors must look to all avenues of opportunity for increased business.

No one can afford to rest on his laurels in this day and age. The business is changing and the businessman who does not change with it will be left behind.

Rock-Ola Signs Active Amusement In Phila.

CHICAGO—Ed Doris, vice president, Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation, this city, announced last week the appointment of Active Amusement Machines Company, leading Philadelphia coin firm headed by Joe Ash, as exclusive distributors for the firm's phonograph line. "This association with one of the finest distributors in the land, equipped with the necessary broad sales facilities, will result in a fine marriage of manufacturer-distributor relations," stated Doris after making the announcement. "The Active appointment serves to point up the continuing strong links in a top-flight distributor chain," added Doris.

Ash, who has not handled a phonograph line for two years, gave as his reason for resuming a phonograph distributorship, "a low-price phonograph," and one which permits the operator to "perform at a profit."

Active distributes the D. Gottlieb & Company pingame line throughout the Pennsylvania and South Jersey areas. He is assisted in his duties by Marty Brownstein, a long-time coin machine sales executive, who supervises the Active distributorship. Ash expects to setup a phonograph sales division and program immediately with an all-out emphasis on the Rock-Ola phonograph line since there has been no distributor in this area for several months. "It won't be long before the 'Princess' is the phonograph the operators are asking for," stated Ash, "and we intend to give them every conceivable amount of help in getting the Rock-Ola equipment out on location. The sooner they do that the sooner the music operators in Philadelphia and the outlying areas will learn why this phonograph is the fastest selling machine in the industry today."

Virginia Ops Continue Strong Local PR Drives; Chandler Heads Program As Lesnick Makes Latest Donation

JOHN CHANDLER

RICHMOND, VA.—In conjunction with a very active public relations program in this area which has been conducted under the supervision of the Music Operators of Virginia for some time, the Virginia ops made the headlines again last week when president-elect Hy Lesnick donated a music machine to the Salvation Army Red Shield Boys' Club. (See photo.)

John Chandler, a member of MOV and recently elected a director of the Coin Machine Council, is active in a public relations leadership role here and helped bring together the recipient and the donor when the need for a phonograph arose several weeks ago. Chandler takes his public relations work seriously and he expressed Lesnick's feelings on such charitable action. Lesnick, president of Richmond Amusement Sales Company, told Chandler that the deed, although not a great deal of value was involved, offered a tremendous amount of satisfaction once the donation was made.

Chandler said that Lesnick was surprised to find that the club is affiliated with the Boys' Club of America, and that the members of the board happened to be the leading professional and public service people in town. The president of an insurance company, member of the license dept., a churchman, a police dignitary, commissioner of public safety, school officials and industrialists were among the leaders of the club.

Chandler, in bringing home the public relations theme, asked coinmen everywhere to perform the same benevolent acts and support community drives such as this. "The old equipment that can't be used in competition for locations makes wonderful philanthropic tools," said Chandler. He added that ops will enjoy the pleasant experiences and new found friendships. "Remember, God gave you your relatives, but you can choose and make new friends," inferring that many friends can also be made by donating equipment in the name of the industry.

Gottlieb To Conduct Luncheon and Hospital Tour While Coinmen Are In Chicago For NAMA Convention

CHICAGO—In a telegram received by Cash Box, the board of governors of Gottlieb Memorial Hospital and the Gottlieb family extended an invitation to all members of the coin machine industry who will be in Chicago for the NAMA Convention, (Oct. 28-Nov. 1), to a special luncheon and tour of the new hospital.

Rock-Ola Appoints Flower City In NYS

CHICAGO—Ed Doris, vice president of Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation, this city, announced last week that the Flower City Distributing Company has been appointed exclusive Rock-Ola distributor for the central and western New York State area with Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Elmira, Ithaca and Binghamton serving as the principal trading area.

Joseph Grillo, veteran coin machine operator and distributor, is president and general manager of Flower City, which is located at 389 Webster Avenue in Rochester.

Doris commented on the appointment stating that the firm expects an immediate increase in sales on the overall phonograph line and will see an emphasis in the area on the Rock-Ola "Princess," the compact phonograph which Doris intimated has been in strong demand in the upstate area for some time.

The telegram, under the signature of Louis Zahn, Hospital President, stated, "This is a wonderful opportunity for us to thank the people in the coin machine trade for their support of this project. They will be able to personally see an example of public relations of which the whole industry can be proud."

The luncheon and tour will be on Tuesday, October 31st, starting at 12 noon. Those interested will please notify Nate Gottlieb at ALbany 2-2640. Transportation to and from the luncheon will be furnished by D. Gottlieb & Company."

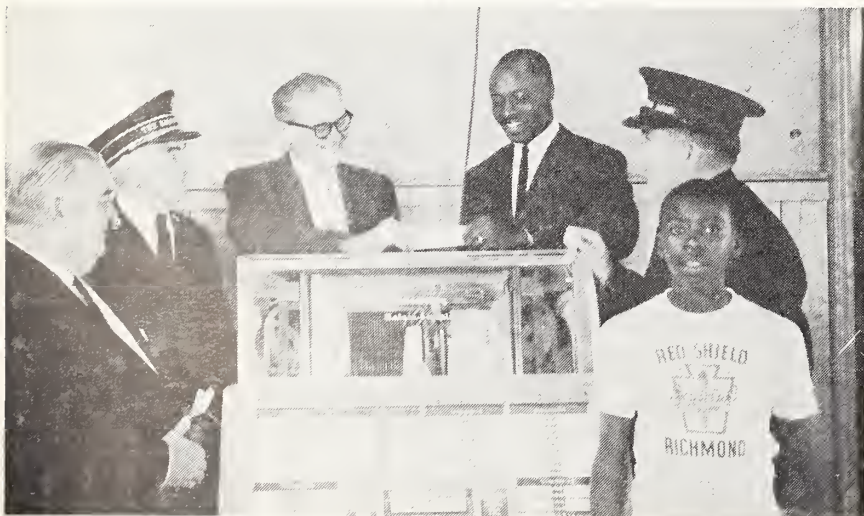

Coin Machine Council To Dissolve

CHICAGO—A proposed plan of distribution of assets has been offered by the Coin Machine Council after the recent decision to dissolve the organization. A ninety-day notice was given to the trade during the summer season, with a plea for financial support from members of the coin machine industry. Lack of funds forced the group to issue the ultimatum. Since no support of any worthwhile size was offered since the notice, CMC will close its doors after remaining assets are distributed among present supporters and members, and board members vote their approval of the plan to dissolve. There is no doubt that CMC will end its activities.

Herb Jones, secretary of CMC, and Bally Manufacturing Company executive, last week notified the trade by mail to the extent that "continued failure" of the industry to support CMC in "sufficient strength" has led to dissolution.

A special meeting of the members to vote on final matters has been called for Monday, November 6, between 3 and 4 PM in the council headquarters. Proxy statements were mailed throughout the country permitting members to voice their vote by mail.

Hy Lesnick newly elected President of Music Operators of Virginia, presenting music machine to Salvation Army Boys' Club. William J. Hanks, Executive Director accepting as others look on. In the picture is John D. Chandler, Director of Coin Machine Council on Public Relations; also Lt. Commissioner Albert Chesman, Southern Territory Salvation Army, William Haskins, Hy Lesnick, also Major Elmer Capp, Financial Secretary, Southern Territory; Fernando Jenkins, Club Member.

King Vending To Distribute Rock-Ola's IVI and Hebel Machines JOHN BILOTTA TO SELL THE NYS AREA

CHICAGO—In order to “strengthen present distributor sales programs” and to establish the Rock-Ola vending line in the New York State area, Ed Doris, vice-president, Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation, this city, has appointed the King Vending Sales Company, a Syracuse vending machine firm headed by John Bilotta, to exclusively distribute the firm’s IVI and Hebel machines in New York State. The market does not include New York City.

Bilotta is president of the King firm, Jack Shawcross and Roland Smith, Rex-Bilotta execs in Syracuse, manage sales for King Vending. Doris stated that the addition of King Vending and the “dynamic Bilotta sales staff” will assure operators in the NYS area of “continued reliable service on all vending equipment.”

Bilotta’s firm distributes phonographs, amusement machines, and just about every conceivable type of coin-operated machine available. The firm handles the large arcade units as well as cigarette vending machines and bulk vending units throughout the upstate area. Bilotta has branch offices in Syracuse and Albany with main offices in Newark, New York.

NYS Ops Hold Monthly Meeting

KINGSTON, N. Y.—The New York State Operators Guild held its monthly meeting here on Wednesday evening, October 18, at the Governor Clinton Hotel, and a large turnout was in attendance. The reason for the exceptionally large number of operators present was probably due to the recent Laurels affair when the coinmen gathered together for a social weekend at the Catskill resort. The weekend was a major topic of conversation, and while the meeting included a discussion of potential sites for next year’s conclave, no definite resort area was chosen nor was any concrete decision made to duplicate this year’s program which included a combination meeting with members of the Music Operators of New York, Inc. A spokesman advised that consideration is being given to individual annual affairs as well as the group affair as it was conducted this year. Local issues were discussed and the meeting was considered very successful by those who attended.

Rock-Ola “Lucky 7” Vacation Contest For Operators Ends Nov. 7th 16 Days Left For Ops To Enter

CHICAGO—Music operators across the nation are reminded by Ralph Wyckoff, director of advertising and sales promotion for Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation, that there are just 16 days remaining for them to enter Rock-Ola’s “Lucky 7” Vacation Contest. The contest officially terminates November 7, 1961.

To enter the contest, Wyckoff said, an operator purchases three new “Princess” model 1493 phonographs from his local Rock-Ola distributor. He immediately receives from the factory one model J66 “Electric Eye” Polaroid Land camera kit, complete with carrying case, flash outfit and film. An operator is entitled to one complete camera kit with each purchase of three phonographs.

“Then,” Wyckoff continued, “when the phonographs have been put in locations the operator is urged to take a photograph of the phono on location. When this is done the final step is that the operator then mails the photo prints in to the Rock-Ola plant as entrants in the contest. An added prize for the vacation winner is an extra camera kit which the winning operator presents to the location owner whose installation was judged the best.”

The grand prize in store for the winning operator is a fabulous seven day vacation in Las Vegas. Transportation to and from the pleasure capital is by first class jet flight. The winner will stay at the Tropicana Hotel for 6 days and seven nights. A 1961 convertible car will also be provided. For pleasure $250 cash will be available, and finally front row center seats will be presented to the operator for all of the top shows in Las Vegas. The trip includes the winning operator and his wife.

ROWEBOTERIA ON WHEELS: If you want to see the new line of Rowe vending machines distributed by David Rosen, Inc., just stand on a street corner in Philadelphia. When the David Rosen truck passes by, you will see a dramatic color illustration of the complete line of vending machines lined up in what Rosen calls a “Roweboteria.”

Designed by David Rosen, head of the firm that has been in the coin machine business for 30 years, the unique side panel illustration was painted in color by a local artist.

The 22-foot vehicle is equipped with a lift gate and is used exclusively for the distribution of vending and music machines.

Rosen is exclusive distributor for Rowe and AMI in the eastern part of Pennsylvania and South New Jersey.

Rosen contemplates duplicating the illustration on a smaller truck to be used for retail operation of the company’s vending and music equipment.

STD. FINANCIAL ACQUIRES LOAN ASSOC. 9 Mos. Earnings Up 38%

NEW YORK—Standard Financial Corporation has acquired Security Industrial Loan Association of Richmond, Va., in exchange for Standard Financial prior preferred stock, Theodore H. Silbert, Standard Financial president, announced last week. Security Industrial, organized in 1954 to do business as an industrial loan association, under the general supervision of the Banking Department of the Virginia State Corporate Commission, operates principally in the home mortgage field. It is one of the largest industrial loan associations in Virginia with loans in excess of $5 million.

Earnings of Standard Financial Corporation for the nine months ended September 30, 1961 increased 38% over the same period last year from $900,283 to $1,245,000.

Per share earnings for the nine months period this year are based on 2,068,167 shares outstanding, or 57¢ per share, as compared with 1,726,969 shares outstanding, or 54¢ per share on September 30, 1960. Silbert said that common share earnings were the highest for a nine month period in the company's history.

This was before amortization of excess cost of common stock over equity in net assets of subsidiaries acquired for both years.

He also said that the rise in profits for 1961 was attributed to the recently completed merger of Universal Finance Corporation, Los Angeles, into Standard Financial, and Standard Financial's acquisition of Security Industrial Loan Association, Richmond, Virginia. "Both companies have been operating profitably under experienced and capable management. Their earnings for 1961 have been included in those of Standard Financial's on a pooling of interest basis for the 1961 nine month period."

For fiscal 1961, Silbert forecasted that Standard Financial should report earnings of 80¢ or more per common share which would result in the seventh successive year of increased earnings per common share.

The company's deferred income also rose to a new high, $8,800,000. "Further benefits resulting from the merger and acquisition are increased financing and geographical diversification, besides the addition of capable, experienced financial management," Silbert said.

Standard Financial, founded in 1932, is a nationwide commercial finance, factoring and industrial time

Coinman Forms Youth Program

CHICAGO—Due to a coin machine operator's dedication to the youth of the combined Menominee, Michigan and Marinette, Wisconsin area that dual community is completely bereft of any problems concerning juvenile delinquency. The dedicated operator—Bob Rondeau—supervises a budding youth center in the heart of Menominee, known far and wide as The Youth Incorporated, according to Joe Robbins, general sales manager of Empire Coin Machine Exchange. Robbins recently spent a day in that area and watched the youth project function.

Rondeau explained that the youth center is actually run by the enterprising teenagers themselves. There are upwards of 500 teenagers actively engaged in this project.

The Youth Incorporated is operated strictly as a non-profit organization. During the last election for officers (it is run like a civic government) 546 votes were cast to elect 12 councilmen. 26 teenagers ran for the offices.

All of the rules the teenagers must abide by while they are on the premises have been set up by the youths themselves. Some of the rules are: No shorts or slacks are permitted. Blue jeans are also forbidden. There are several regulations concerning age limits for membership, voting and for eligibility to officer-ships on the Council. Elections are held at the start of every school semester.

The one factor Rondeau stressed in conclusion is that this youth movement owes no allegiance to any lodge, civic group, etc. It is absolutely self supporting and operated exclusively by the youngsters themselves.

The organization was planned by Rondeau and Ed Wiltius, who donated the building the Youth Center is housed in.

Taran handles distribution for all Keeney products throughout the state of Florida.

sales equipment financing corporation, with $125 million in resources, and with subsidiaries and branch offices in New York City, Los Angeles, Dallas, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, El-mira, N.Y. and Richmond.

Current volume of sales financed is at the rate of $350 million annually. Cross receivables (representing earning assets) also rose from $93 million at September 30, 1960 to $125 million at September 30, 1961.

"Bally Bowler" Adds New Length Now Available In 13 Ft. Size

BILL O'DONNELL

CHICAGO—"Bally Bowler," Bally Manufacturing's newest game, is now available in a 13 ft. length model, according to Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city.

"The 16 ft. model continues the favorite," O'Donnell said, "and for special spots operators are adding 5 ft. alley sections to offer Bally Bowler in 21 ft. and 26 ft. lengths. But the demand for the 13 ft. model is increasing, as a result of reports on location tests which prove that 'Bally Bowler' even in the shorter length will top other bowlers in earning power." Reason? "The realistic bowling action that results from the exclusive Bally swivel-action pins that fly in any desired direction, depending on the angle at which ball hits pins or pins hit pins. This is what players have been waiting for, and they like it in any length—13 ft. to 26 ft.," concluded O'Donnell.

NAMA Members Urged To Talk At Local Schools

CHICAGO—Members of NAMA were urged this week to participate in Career Day talks before their local high schools in order to recruit suitable young people into vending jobs and to tell the "vending story" to high school students.

In "Special Report No. 5", the Association furnished suggestions on how to reach young people through Career days, including "how to obtain a place in Career Day programs" and "tips for successful Career Day talks."

The report also contained a special article about vending jobs aimed at high school students. Reprints of this article are available from NAMA at cost ($7.50 for each 100 copies). It was published several months ago by Science Research Associates in cooperation with NAMA.

Science Research Associates has sent the vending career article to some 1,500 high school counselors.

The "Special Report" is part of a series which are being sent to NAMA members each month as a special membership service, according to Thomas B. Hungerford, executive director.

The seminar was sponsored by the Paper Cup and Container Institute.

He spoke to a joint session of the industrial and institutional divisions of the Institute.

Williams Appoints Runyon Sales For N.Y., N.J. and Conn. On Pins Arcade

NEW YORK—In a continuing effort to diversify its present distributor program, Runyon Sales Company's chairman, Barney Sugerman, announced last week that the firm has taken on the Williams amusement machine line for the territories of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corp. is currently producing the "Reserve", "Skill Ball" and "Double Barrel" pingames as well as its regular gun game line.

In making the move into the pin-game field, Runyon president Abe Green noted the progressive steps taken by the wholesale house during the past year, pointing to the emphasis on Rowe cigarette machine sales, expansion of the firm's export division, and a well-rounded service school program on all of the firm's lines. Runyon distributes the Rowe-AMI lines, Bally, Irving Kaye Co. pool tables and now the Williams pin-game and arcade machine lines.

Jack Baigelman, Williams sales manager, stated that the Runyon ap-

Sol Tabb (Miami) Wins Miami Vacation!

CHICAGO—Guess who won AMI's "Big Challenge" vacation prize for the month of September—a native of Miami, Florida!

Tom Sams, vice president of AC Automatic Services and operating head of the subsidiary Automatic Music, Incorporated (AMI), quipped that Sol Tabb of Mar-Tabb Corporation, 12805 Biscayne Bay Drive, Miami, Florida "can very easily reach his vacation destination afoot, since it is in walking distance from his stamping grounds."

However, Sams stated that arrangements will be made by AMI to present Tabb with a vacation locale which will most certainly please him and his spouse.

The drawing for the September winner in the "Big Challenge" vacation contest was made in AC Automatic Services new offices on Michigan Avenue, in downtown Chicago, and supervised by Sams and Dick Prendergast, the new director of advertising. Nick Biro of Billboard Music Week drew for this winner. Both Cash Box and BMW make the drawings on an alternate schedule.

CORRECTION

HARRISBURG, Penna.—The date given for the forthcoming AMOA of Pennsylvania annual banquet in last week's Cash Box was incorrect. The coin machine association Banquet and Dance will be held on Sunday, November 12, in the Holiday West Motel at the Gettysburg Exchange off the Penna. Tnpke.

Royal's "Waikiki Beach" Gets Big Reception From Penna. Ops; Shockey To Appoint Nationwide Distribs

CLINT SHOCKEY

CINCINNATI, O.—"Waikiki Beach" the current Royal Distributing pingame announced to the trade last week (Cash Box, Oct. 21, p. 56) is reportedly a huge success in the Cincinnati area. Royal's sales manager, Clint Shockey, advised Cash Box last week that the revamped pingame is "averaging $45 per week on locations throughout Southern Ohio." However, the biggest reaction to the revamped pingame, outside of Cincinnati, came from the State of Pennsylvania, where operators are clamoring for the pingame. Shockey's sales sheets on the game at week's end reflected the tremendous demand for "Waikiki Beach" in the Pennsylvania area. "We expected to do a big business in Pennsylvania," stated Shockey, "but one of the reasons for our current increased production is the fantastic response from the Pennsy ops."

The revamped pingame has been selling to Cincy operators since the beginning of the year. Royal management decided on a national push last month and sales reports indicate that a production increase will be necessary to keep up with orders.

Supreme Novelty Company, a Cincinnati operating firm, reportedly has twenty of the "Waikiki Beach" games on location and collections have justified re-orders. Pioneer Vending, another local coin firm has 80 of the revamps out and are enjoying similar success.

Shockey is planning on meeting with the nation's ops during the forthcoming NAMA Convention in Chicago. The Royal sales boss will stay at the Essex House Motel, a new Chi motel located next door to the Conrad Hilton, and expects to make several distributor appointments while in Chicago. Royal does a wide vending machine business via the Rowe-AMI lines, one of fourteen major factory lines carried by the Cincy coin firm.

Irv Sandler takes credit for more than just being the Wurlitzer distributor in the Minneapolis territory. He is also the proud papa of Grinnell College's football hero, Ron Sandler, who was credited with the big win over Knox U. last month. Ron's a senior and enters medical school next September.

Eastern Flashes

The street known as Tenth Avenue offered very little in the way of news last week but machines and coinmen were moving from showroom to location and back again and this in itself is a sort of news—the movement of equipment, the life blood of the business. . . . The new equipment included the Chi-Coin "Triple Gold Pin" shuffle, the same firm's "Continental" bowler, United's "Stardust" shuffle, and "7-Star" bowler, the "Bally Bowler," Irving Kaye's pool table line, Valley's pool tables, and the 1961 phonograph machines. The coinmen included all of the distributors, of course, and many operators from as far north as the Catskills and from the southerly areas of New York's changing town as well. As a matter of fact New York is changing at such a rapid pace it is a major cause for concern here since many of the juke box locations in the semi-slum sections are not being replaced once a neighborhood is razed and rebuilt. Perhaps Gov. Rockefeller's suggestion to build "in the spaces above the tunnels and parkways" will leave what's left of the neighborhood taverns to the operator and his machines.

Charlie Rubenstein was one operator who wasn't concerning himself with the problems of operating arcades last week but instead heralded the coming of the Natl. Showmen's Assoc. banquet and dance scheduled for Thanksgiving eve at the Hotel Commodore, an event that has been held each year on this date since 1937, a year which saw the advent of some of the machines which are to this day on location in Rubenstein's arcades. Charlie makes a great press agent for whomever or whatever it is he's promoting and like all good publicity men, the listeners believe every word. Therefore, a crowd should be present when the Natl. Showmen's holds its Open House Party Nov. 21st at the Club House located at 123 West 56th St. in NYC. Rubenstein cordially invites everyone to drop by for some refreshment and we will make it a point to be there.

Teddy Blatt, legal beagle for the coin machine operator and a variety of firms connected with this business strolls through Tenth Avenue with briefcase in hand calling on several clients no doubt in answer to a call for assistance in solving the legal aspects of this business—a necessary evil in doing business today. . . . Verle Van Nattan, Auto-Photo sales chief, reportedly in from the West Coast plant to visit with one of the factory's largest distributors, Albert Simon Inc. . . . Ted "Champ" Seidel, doing business from his hip pocket as always, stops by several showrooms to check the action. . . . Sylvia and Dave Lowy, strolling arm in arm, after checking the details of the big move which will bring the MJL Operating Co. closer to the hub of Tenth Avenue, across from Runyon's, on the eastside of the avenue.

Mike Munves, viewing the situation in his showrooms, after a long rest in Hot Springs, doubts if any member of the firm will attend the NAMA show but looks forward to reading all about it in Cash Box. We'll have a full staff on hand during the entire run of the vending show and you can expect the complete story and photos just several days after the doors close on this greatest of all trade shows. 8000 expected! (And lots of 'em will be coinmen from every city in the country.)

Irving Holzman, United East Coast Corp., very, very happy over the latest United equipment to come off the assembly line—"Stardust" shuffle alley and "7-Star" bowler. "A great combination and the 'Stardust' is one heck of a follow-up to the 'Viking' which was a good seller, too," was the way Irv put it to us.

Barney Sugerman, Runyon chief, delighted over the Williams appointment and comments that the firm will be that much stronger with a pingame line in the house for those eager Jersey ops. Myron Sugerman getting rave notices on his export report which filled these pages last week and a public thank-you to Myron for helping Cash Box feature the report to the world trade. Morris Rood told us that the "Bally Bowler" is selling up a storm from the New York office here. The unit is now available in the 13' size according to Bally's Bill O'Donnell and ops now have a variety of sizes running from short to medium to long.

Up the block in Abe Lipsky's Libra outlet, Harry Koeppel takes a moment out to relax and guess what he spent his "relaxation" time doing? Repairing a phonograph! (A home unit for the family). Business looked good at Libra and the export helped keep these humming.

Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic NY Corp.'s head man, was hustling to get as much work out of the way as possible before leaving earlier than usual next week for the NAMA Show. Seeburg will hold a distrib meeting before the factory premieres its new equipment from the floor of McCormick Place and the distribis will no doubt be briefed on what's new and how much, for the coming year. The Bally Coffee Machine, which is now a Seeburg asset is undergoing the necessary details that are part of acquiring another factory's machine and reports indicate that production will definitely be upped as soon as possible.

Si Redd, another Seeburg outlet, but one serving all of New England, commented on the terrific vending business of late capped with a sharp upturn in Seeburg phono sales. Nothing like success, Si! . . . No word from Vic Haim on the Murray Kaye golf challenge, or did Vic phone Kaye on the QT? We hadn't heard a word at presstime. . . . Al D'Inzillo told us that Larry Feigenbaum, the Al Simon service manager, would be laid up at home for another few weeks after undergoing an operation some weeks back. Meanwhile, Simon and D'Inzillo try to figure the schedule that will best suit them during their trip to Chicago's NAMA show. . . . Cash Box will be at the show and if you attend look us up! We'd like to meet all of you out there!

Bert Betti's Eastern Novelty Distributors will be officially in their new quarters at 3726-34 Tonnele Avenue effective October 23rd so you can expect the announcement of a big open house party within 5 or 6 weeks after the boys get settled. The plush new building will also house the Betson Enterprises segment of Betti's business as well as H. Betti & Sons, Inc. the operating firm.

Chicago Chatter

How does the future business index look? That vital and interesting query was optimistically answered by Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon, who reported at the American Bankers Assn. Convention in Frisco that "the United States is heading into a new period of high level prosperity." This—from the United States Secretary of the Treasury—is, indeed, good news plus . . . A reminder: Don't forget to put the very important International Symposium on your agenda of meetings when you attend the NAMA convention in Chicago (October 28 thru 31). It's a very special treat for all. NAMA's public relations director Walter Reed tells us that many foreign visitors will attend and they'll be identified as such on their lapel badges.

Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager at Bally Mfg., tipped to us last week that the sensational, new "Bally Bowler", big ball, coin-operated bowling game is now available for locations in a 13 foot length model. "Although," he insists, "the 16 foot model is still the favorite most everywhere." For certain locations five foot sections are added, making it possible for 21 foot and 26 foot lengths.

JOEL STERN

JACK BAIGELMAN

RALPH WYCKOFF

During these fretful days when people are so busy thinking about bomb shelters and other nerve shattering situations Sam Gensburg of Chicago Dynamic Industries talks glowingly about the many beautiful scenic wonders in this country. Sam and his lovely wife greatly enjoy the pleasure of motoring thru the great southwest just taking in all of the glorious landmarks, national parks, etc. While at ChiCoin we noticed also that Art Weinand and Mort Secore are thrilled about the steady sales results ChiCoin is enjoying "without a let-up".

While Joel Stern is smiling mightily about the continuing healthy biz trend at World Wide Distributors, we get the idea that Len Micon is wistfully looking at his golf clubs more these days giving in to the thought that he'll have to forgo his favorite hobby until next Spring. (Oh, yeah! He'll probably be out there with a snow shovel, donning a parka!).

The biggest chuckle here this week concerns the operator who was picked (from among operators from all over the country) as this month's winner of AMI's "Big Challenge" vacation contest—Sol Tabb from (of all places) Miami, Florida! However, Tom Sams, veepee of AC Automatic Services, assures us everything possible will be done to send Sol off on an exciting, wonderful vacation elsewhere. AMI's distrib in Miami is Ozzie Trupmann's Bush Intl.

Over at Williams Electronic Mfg. prexy Sam Stern and sales chief Jack Baigelman info'd that Runyon Sales is Williams' new distrib in the eastern part of New York, and all of New Jersey and Connecticut. With this we extend best wishes to Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Abe Green, Myron Sugerman and Morris Rood. The deal was finalized when Shugy and Abe visited here recently.

The glowing smiles on the faces of Rock-Ola's Ed Doris and Ralph Wyckoff were put there by the appointment of Joe Ash's Active distribbers as Rock-Ola's distrib in the east. Also, another eastern appointment—Flower City Dist. Co. handling distribution in the central and western New York State area, with Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Elmira, Ithaca and Binghamton trading areas as their principal markets. . . . The big action of late at First Coin, according to Joe Kline and Sam Kolber, is in export sales. And it's growing steadily.

Optimistic business reports all over are definitely obvious at United Mfg., where Bill DeSelm reports that United's "Viking" shuffle alley and "Frolies" big ball bowler are keeping production humming along at top speed. It's always a pleasure to chin with such United luminaries as Herb Oettinger, Bill, LeRoy Kraehmer, Glenn Johnson, Ray Riehl, Johnny Casola and Al Thoeleke. . . . Alvin Gottlieb was a visitor in good ol' N'Yawk t'other day (no wonder we don't get to see Alvin around these days, he's gallivantin' around more). Nate Gottlieb tells us D. Gottlieb's "Corral" pinball amusement game is 'corralling' huge sales everywhere. . . . A Cash Box visitor last week was Dick Weis of Hofton, Inc., a music operator on the far north side of the city. . . . A visitor in Chi (briefly) last week was coinvet Johnny Bilotta (who sure gets around!).

Empire Coin's Joe Robbins told of a terrific public relations effort accomplished by a coin machine operator, Bob Rondeau, in the Menominee, Michigan-Marquette, Wisconsin area. Bob gathered the youth in his community together and formed a solely supported organization known as The Youth Incorporated. The idea caught on so well there that everyone's talking about it. This is good public relations effort.
